

CHAPTER FIVE

John Nichols, Jr. and Descendants

Generation No. 2

1. JOHN³ NICHOLS, JR. (JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1800 in the state of Virginia, and died bet. July 1875 and October 1876 probably in Metcalfe County, Kentucky. He married MARY RANES abt. 1824, daughter of EPHRAIM RANES and NANCY RANES. She was born in the state of Virginia, and died bef. 1850 probably in Barren County, Kentucky.

Notes for JOHN NICHOLS, JR.:

John Nichols, Jr., the fourth child of John and Nancy Nichols, was born about 1800 in the state of Virginia. The birth year of 1800 is estimated from census reports and other public information. (Note: An exact date of February 12, 1800, which has been cited by some individuals but could not be verified by the author).

John Nichols, Jr. was listed on the Barren County personal property tax rolls for the first time in 1820, where he was shown as owning no taxable property. The fact that his name was listed on the tax rolls indicates that he may have already been 21 years old because only free white males over 21 were taxable. This would seem to suggest that he was born in 1799 instead of 1800, but that year is usually reserved by researchers for the birth of John's brother, Richard.

John's name appears again on the 1821 tax roles, and at that time he was shown as the owner of one horse. Curiously, he was absent from the 1822 tax roles but reappeared again in 1823, listed as John "Nuckolds" Jr. In 1824, he was listed as John Nicholds, the owner of one horse, and, again, in 1825, he appeared as John Nicholds Jr., still charged tax for owning one horse.

John Nichols married Mary Ranes (Raines) in 1824 or 1825, but no marriage record was located which documents their marriage. Almost nothing is known about her except that she was probably born in Virginia, the daughter of Nancy Ranes, and she had a sister, Lucy McCoy Ranes, who married John's brother, Thomas Nichols. She died before the 1850 census, and although researchers have long suspected that her maiden name was Ranes, confirmation was not discovered until recently when her identity was revealed on the death certificate of one of her sons, P. B. Nichols, who died in Sangamon County, Illinois in 1921.

The 1830 Census for Barren County listed John "Niccolls" as head of family, with the following family distribution: one male under 5 years, one male 30 to 35 years, one female under 5 years, one female 5 to 9 years, and one female 21 to 29 years. (Note: Assuming that the census report is correct, the male child listed here may have been an older son of John Nichols, an individual who has never been identified. The boy appeared in the household again in the 1840 census, listed as a male child between 10 and 15 years old, but he was absent from the household thereafter).

The 1840 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky listed John Nicholds as head of family, and a family distribution as follows: three males under 5 years, one male 10 to 15 years, one male 40 to 50 years, one female 5 to 10 years, one female 10 to 15 years, one female 15 to 20 years, one female 30 to 40 years, and one female 60 to 70 years. (Note: The elderly female listed here was John Nichols' mother-in-law, Nancy Ranes. Ten years later, in the 1850 Census, she was named as being part of his household).

By 1850, John Nichols Jr. was a widower, and his oldest daughter, Nancy, age 24, had married and left his home to start her own family. The 1850 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky listed John Nichols, age 50, a farmer and head of household, which included three daughters and three sons: Sally A., age 21, Elizabeth, age 19, William, age 15, George, age 12, "Pebony," age 10, and Angelina, age 8. Also living in their home was Nancy Ranes, age 72. (Note: The correct name for the ten year old son identified as "Pebony" may have been Phillip B. Nichols, named after his uncle. However, all of his adult life he was known only by his initials, "P. B.," and that is the name used in this manuscript).

Metcalf County officially became a county of Kentucky in the year 1860, when it was formed from parts of Adair, Barren, Cumberland, Green and Monroe counties. Thus, the 1860 Census for Metcalf County (not Barren) showed John Nichols, age 61, a retired farmer, living in the same household with his brother, George W. Nichols and his family. John's son, William, had married three years earlier, and his oldest daughter, Nancy, had been married for many years. However, the whereabouts of his other five children are unaccounted for during this period. It is also unclear whether George W. Nichols and his family had moved from Barren County into the home of his brother, John, or if John had temporarily moved in with George. Nevertheless, by 1867, George had relocated again to adjoining Hart County, and John was still residing in Metcalf County.

The Personal Property Tax Rolls for Metcalf County in 1860 listed John "Nickols" as the owner of a 120 acre farm located on the waters of Blue Spring Creek and appraised at $600. He was also assessed taxes on two horses, five cattle, fifteen hogs over the age of 6 months old, and 2000 pounds of tobacco. Also recorded on the tax report was the presence of an unidentified child, between the ages of 6 and 18 years old, who was living in the household. The child was present again in 1861, but was missing after that.

In 1867, John divided his 120 acre farm, keeping 40 acres to farm himself, and assigning 40 acres each to his brother, George W. Nichols, and his son, P. B. Nichols. His taxable property for that year was listed as 40 acres of land located on Blue Spring Creek, one horse, one cow, six hogs over 6 months old, two tons of hay, and 200 bushels of corn. On the Metcalf County tax rolls for 1867, he was also listed as the agent for his brother, George, who had moved his family from Metcalf County to adjoining Hart County shortly after 1866. Although he now lived in Hart County, George Nichols continued to farm his 40 acres in Metcalf County through 1871, after which he was no longer listed on the county tax rolls.

The 1870 U.S. Census for Metcalf County, Kentucky named only John Nichols, age 70, and his daughter, Sally Ann, age 40. The value of his real estate was appraised at $1000, and the value of his personal estate was listed as $280. He appeared for the last time on the Metcalf County Personal Property Tax Roles in the year 1874, where he was shown with 30 acres of land valued at $120. His other assets included one horse and one cow.

John Nichols' home place was a 120 acre tract located about 12 miles east of Glasgow on the waters of Blue Spring Creek in what would later become Metcalf County, Kentucky. Several years before Metcalf officially became a county, John Nichols, Jr. purchased from Henry Shirley a certain tract or parcel of land located on the waters of Blue Spring Creek in what was then Barren County. He paid $400 cash in hand for 120 acres, but a deed was never made at the time of purchase, and many years later, Henry Shirley died without ever making a deed. The approximate year of purchase is not known, but this land was probably John's original home place where he farmed and raised his family. In 1873, John decided to sell a portion of the tract, some forty seven and one half acres, to D. C. Smith for the sum of $380. (Deed Book 3, page 274, Metcalfe County) reserving the remainder of the property for his daughter, Sally Ann. Since he had no original deed from Henry Shirley, John Nichols had to post a conveyance bond to D.C. Smith before filing a suit against the heirs of Henry Shirley to issue him a deed.

Deed Book 3, page 504, Metcalfe County Clerk

I, John Nichols, am the owner of One Hundred and Twenty acres of land situated in Metcalfe Co., Ky. procured by me of one Henry Shirley and is secure the title to which I have this day brought suit in the Metcalfe Circuit Court against the heirs of said Shirley. D.C. Smith has my bond for a conveyance from me for about 47 1/2 acres of said land and Marion Mann has bought of me a certain boundary of said land for which he has no bond. Now in consideration of the services of my daughter Sally Ann Nichols, in waiting on me, taking care of me, I do give and sell to her the remainder of six tracts of land subject to my life estate therein. Given unto my hand this day of May 1873.

/s/ John Nichols
Attest D.C. Smith
S.R. Edwards

On July 18, 1875, the heirs of Henry Shirley, who lived in Hart County, made a deed issuing the 120 acres of land to John Nichols, and the deed was officially certified in the Metcalfe County Clerk's office on July 30, 1875. (Deed Book 3, page 47.)

The exact date for John Nichols' death has not been determined nor has his place of burial been located. It is believed that he died sometime between July 18, 1875 and October 17, 1876, which would have made him either 75 or 76 years old. Some sources put his death on March 28, 1876, which fits within the correct time frame, but that date has not been verified by the author. Equity Suit No. 4292, Anderson vs. Leroy Nichols, et. al., filed in the Barren County Court on October 17, 1876, stated that John Nichols was then deceased. In Deed Book 3, page 47, of the Barren County Court, he is named in a land conveyance deed recorded on July 18, 1875 (see above), so he was obviously living at that time.

Burial: unknown

Notes for MARY RANES:

The identity of John Nichols' wife, Mary Ranes (Raines), was determined from the death certificate of P. B. Nichols, one of her sons who died in Sangamon County, Illinois in 1921. It was always suspected that she was the daughter of Nancy Ranes and therefore an older sister to Lucy McCoy Ranes, who married John's brother, Thomas Nichols. She died in Barren County, Kentucky sometime between the birth of her last child, Angelina, in 1842 and the summer 1850, when the census was enumerated. Nancy Ranes, age 72, was listed as living in the John Nichols household in the 1850 Barren County census. Although not named, a female between the ages of 60 and 70 also appeared in John Nichols' household during the 1840 census, when John's wife was still living. Undoubtedly, that elderly female was also Nancy Ranes, who had come to live with her daughter's family in her old age.

Standard Certificate of Death No. 5554, State of Illinois, Sangamon County.

P. B. Nichols, age 83 years and 11 months, male, white, a widower, retired farmer. Born April 2, 1837, Died March 21, 1921. Cause of death was senility. Parents were John Nichols and Mary Raines, both from Kentucky. Burial at West (Grove) cemetery. Informant was Mrs. J. Lyons (daughter).

More About MARY RANES:

Burial: unknown

Children of JOHN NICHOLS and MARY RANES are:

2. i. NANCY L.⁴ NICHOLS, b. abt. 1826, Barren County, Kentucky; d. Aft. 1900, Barren County, Kentucky.
- ii. SARAH ANN "SALLY" NICHOLS, b. abt. 1829, Barren County, Kentucky; m. ELIJAH K. GREGORY, August 28, 1873, Owl Spring Church, Metcalfe County, Kentucky; b. abt. 1844, state of Tennessee.

Notes for SARAH ANN "SALLY" NICHOLS:

Metcalfe County, Kentucky officially became a county in the year 1860, when it was formed from parts of Adair, Barren, Cumberland, Green and Monroe counties. Thus, after 1859, the family of John Nichols, Jr. found themselves residents of Metcalfe County instead of Barren County. Sally A. Nickols is listed on the Personal Property Tax Rolls for Metcalfe County for the year 1860, where she is shown as the owner of one horse valued at $100.00. She did not appear on the county tax rolls again until the year 1865, where she is shown as the owner of one horse, valued at $50.00.

Sally Ann Nichols was married in 1873 to a widower, Elijah Gregory, a man some 15 years younger than Sally. According to census records, he was about 28 years old, and she was about 43 when they were married. He had two young children from his previous marriage, which she would help to raise, but the couple never had children of their own. Shortly after her father, John Nichols, died in 1876, they moved from Kentucky to Vernon County, Missouri.

Notes for ELIJAH K. GREGORY:

The 1870 census for Glasgow Precinct, Barren County, Kentucky listed Elijah K. Gregory, age 25, a farmer and head of the family, and Malinda E., age 19, keeping house. They were living in the same household as Robert Gooden and his wife and family. Presumably, Melinda died not long after the 1870 census, because three years later, Elijah Gregory married Sally Ann Nichols.

Marriage Bond issued August 27, 1873 in Edmonton, Metcalfe County, Kentucky between Elijah K. Gregory and Sally Ann Nickols. Marriage ceremony was on August 28, 1873 at the Owl Spring Church in Barren County, Kentucky in presence of R. K. Mulky, George W. Monday, and Moses Akin. (Metcalfe County Circuit Court) Note: The marriage bond lists Elijah's age as 28, which fits with earlier census information. However, Sally Ann's age was listed as 35, which was incorrect since she had to be at least 43 years old according to previous census information).

It is believed that Sally Ann's father, John Nichols, Jr., died sometime in late 1875 or 1876 in Metcalfe County. Not long after his death, Elijah and Sally Ann departed Kentucky and moved west to the state of Missouri.

The 1880 census for Dry Wood Township, Vernon County, Missouri listed Elijah Gregory, age 34, a farmer and head of the household, his wife, Sarah A., age 40, a daughter, W. E. Gregory, age 9, and a son, A. M. Gregory, age 7 years old. (Note: The children listed here are from Elijah's first marriage with Malinda E. (see the 1870 census report above). A likely scenario is that Elijah's first wife, Malinda, died during or shortly after the birth of their second child, and Elijah, needing a wife and mother to help care for his two babies, quickly remarried to Sally Ann Nichols. Although Sally Ann's reported age in the 1880 census was 40, she had to have been at least 50 years old. The family left Kentucky and relocated to Vernon County, Missouri, probably after the death of Sally Ann's father, John Nichols, around 1876. It is believed that Elijah Gregory and Sally Ann Nichols had no children together).

Occupation: Farmer

Residence: 1880, Vernon County, Missouri

- iii. ELIZABETH NICHOLS, b. abt. 1831, Barren County, Kentucky; d. abt. 1863, Prob. Metcalfe County, Kentucky.

Notes for ELIZABETH NICHOLS:

Elizabeth Nickols is listed on the Personal Property Tax Rolls for Metcalfe County, Kentucky for the year 1860, where she is shown to be the owner of one horse valued at $50. In 1860, she would have been about 29 years old and still single.

According to an equity suit filed in the Barren County courts on July 21, 1876, it was stated that Elizabeth Nichols and Sally Ann Nichols, both daughters of John Nichols, Jr., were married to men with the surname, Gregory, and both women were living somewhere in the state of Missouri. (Petition in Equity Case No. 4292). It is true that Sally Ann Nichols did indeed marry Elijah K. Gregory on August 28, 1873 in Metcalfe County. However, no record has ever been found concerning the marriage of Elizabeth Nichols, and it is believed that she died in Metcalfe County in 1863 and was probably buried in the Bowles Cemetery in adjoining Barren County. (Note: Listed on page 160 of James Lee Wignall's book is a cemetery record for "Elizabeth Nichols, born June 30, 1831, died June 27, 1863." No location was given, but this individual may well have been the daughter of John Nichols, and the cemetery was probably Bowles.)

Burial: Poss. Bowles Cemetery, Barren County, Kentucky

- iv. WILLIAM C. NICHOLS, b. abt. 1834, Barren County, Kentucky; d. bef. 1876; m. VIRGINIA NICHOLS, November 1857, Barren County, Kentucky; b. abt. 1831, Barren County, Kentucky; d. Bet. January 1866 - October 1867, Prob. Barren County, Kentucky.

Notes for WILLIAM C. NICHOLS:

In November 1857, William C. Nichols married his first cousin, Virginia Nichols, the daughter of Abner Nichols.

The 1860 Barren County, Kentucky census listed William C. Nicholds, age 25, a Farmer, and his wife, Virginia, age 30, Both are shown as being born in Kentucky. Their dwelling was located immediately next door to Virginia's parents.

More About WILLIAM C. NICHOLS:

Date born 2: abt. 1835, state of Kentucky

Notes for VIRGINIA NICHOLS:

The exact date for Virginia Nichols' death is not known, but it seems probable that she died between January 20, 1866 and October 17, 1867. When her father, Abner Nichols, wrote his Last Will and Testament, dated January 20, 1866, Virginia is named as one of his heirs. However, in a lawsuit, filed in the Barren County Court on July 21, 1876, to determine the disposition of two tracts of land owned by Abner Nichols, it states clearly the names of his nine children who survived him at the time of his death which occurred on October 17, 1867. Each of the surviving children received a 1/9 interest in his estate, and Virginia was not named as a surviving heir in the suit. (Case No. 4292, Anderson vs. Nichols, et. al.)

- 3. v. GEORGE NICHOLS, b. abt. 1836, Barren County, Kentucky; d. bet. 1880 - 1900, Prob. St. Charles County, Missouri.
- 4. vi. P. B. NICHOLS, b. April 02, 1837, Barren County, Kentucky; d. March 02, 1921, Lowder, Sangamon County, Illinois.
- vii. ANGELINA NICHOLS, b. abt. 1842, Barren County, Kentucky; d. bef. July 1876, Prob. Metcalfe County, Kentucky.

Notes for ANGELINA NICHOLS:

It is believed that Angelina Nichols died sometime between 1864 and 1876. She appeared in the 1850 census for Barren County, Kentucky as the youngest child of John Nichols, age 8 years old. In 1864, she appeared on the personal property tax rolls for Metcalfe County, where she was assessed taxes for owning one horse valued at $30.00. There is no record of her marriage in either Metcalfe, Barren or the surrounding counties. In fact, no trace of her is found after 1864 in the public record. In an equity lawsuit filed in Barren County on July 21, 1876, she was not listed as one of the surviving children at the time of her father's death. (See explanation of that lawsuit under "Notes for Leroy Nichols," the son of Abner Nichols).

Generation No. 3

2. NANCY L.⁴ NICHOLS (JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1826 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died aft. 1900 in Barren County, Kentucky. She married DEMARQUIS NELSON April 16, 1843 in Barren County, Kentucky (ceremony performed by Rev. Andrew Nuckolds). He was born abt. 1822 in the state of Virginia, and died bef. 1880 in the state of Kentucky.

Notes for NANCY L. NICHOLS:

In 1900, Nancy (Nichols) Nelson, was living near Slick Rock, Barren County, Kentucky in the old Elias Nichols home place with her two first cousins, Sarah (Nichols) Neese and Nancy (Nichols) Spencer, both daughters of Elias. All three women were widows. Nancy Spencer had moved back home with her father after her husband, James Spencer, was killed at the battle of Shiloh in 1862. Many years later, she was joined by her twin sister, Sarah Elizabeth Neese, who returned to Barren County from Illinois, when her husband died while they were residents there. Nancy Nelson probably joined her cousins shortly after her husband died. He was buried in the Bowles family cemetery, but there are no dates on his headstone. Nancy Nelson died between 1900 and 1910 in Barren County. Her grave has not been located, but it is likely she was buried in the Polson Cemetery near Slick Rock, which was located just across the road from the Elias Nichols home place where she lived.

The 1900 census for District No. 3, Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky listed Nancy Spencer, age 63, head of the household, a widow and a pensioner, Sarah Neese, age 63, a pensioner, and Nancy Nelson, age 77, a widow. According to the census report only two of Nancy Nelson's four children were still living. (Note: The fact that only two of Nancy's children were still alive in 1900 means that John B. Nelson and Lucy June Nelson were both deceased. In 1900, her son, Henry, was living in Francois County, Missouri, and her daughter, Etna Ann Green, was living in Clay County, Tennessee).

Burial: Prob. Polson Cemetery, Barren County, Kentucky

Notes for DEMARQUIS NELSON:

The marriage bond of Demarquis Nelson to Nancy Nickols was dated April 15, 1843. Surety was Robert Lyon, with the consent of father, John Nickols. Married April 16, 1843 by Andrew Nuckols.

The 1850 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky listed Demarquis Nelson, age 28, a farmer and head of household, his wife, Nancy, age 24, and a son, Henry, age 7 months. According to the census report, the Nelson household was located immediately next door to that of her father, John Nichols, Jr.

Shortly before 1860, Mark and Nancy Nelson moved to the state of Illinois. The 1860 U.S. Census for Lee Township, Fulton County, Illinois listed "Demarkus" Nelson, age 41, a farmer and Head of Household, his wife, Nancy, age 33, a son, Henry, age 9, a son, John, age 7, a daughter, Lucy, age 3, and an infant (Etna), age 1 month. By 1870, they had returned to Kentucky and were listed on the 1870 U.S. Census for Metcalfe County, all except the oldest son, Henry Nelson, who had married and moved to adjoining Hart County, Kentucky. By 1876, Mark and Nancy had moved again and were, themselves, living in Hart County. They were served a summons, dated October 28, 1876, by the Hart County sheriff ordering them to appear in person at an equity suit in Barren County. (Case No. 4292, Barren County Court.)

Demarquis Nelson was still living as of October 17, 1877, because he and his wife, Nancy, were mentioned in a deed of conveyance, recorded in Barren County at that time. (Deed Book 13, page 34). His name was absent in the 1880 U.S. Census, and it may be that he died before that census was enumerated. He is buried in the Bowles Family Cemetery in Barren County, and on his stone was carved simply "Mark Nelson" and nothing more.

More About DEMARQUIS NELSON:

Burial: Bowles Cemetery, Barren County, Kentucky

Occupation: Farmer

Residence 1: 1860, Fulton County, Illinois

Residence 2: 1870, Metcalfe County, Kentucky

Children of NANCY NICHOLS and DEMARQUIS NELSON are:

5. i. HENRY C.⁵ NELSON, b. November 1849, Barren County, Kentucky; d. bef. 1920.
- ii. JOHN B. NELSON, b. abt. 1853; d. bef. 1900.
- iii. LUCY JUNE NELSON, b. abt. 1855; d. bef. 1900.
6. iv. ETNA ANN NELSON, b. July 12, 1860, Concord, Illinois; d. August 09, 1923, Clay County, Tennessee.

3. GEORGE⁴ NICHOLS (JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1836 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died bet. 1880 and 1900, prob.in St. Charles County, Missouri. He married RACHEL MARTHA MANN February 02, 1861 in Hart County, Kentucky, daughter of WILLIAM MANN. She was born July 1832 in Hart County, Kentucky, and died bet. 1910 and 1920 in St. Charles County, Missouri.

Notes for GEORGE NICHOLS:

Marriage on February 2, 1861 in Hart County, Kentucky between George Nichols, age 23, a farmer, born in Barren County, parents born in Barren County, and Martha Mann, age 28, resides in Hart County.

Shortly after their marriage, George and Martha Nichols departed Kentucky and moved west to the state of Missouri. Their first child, Mary, was born in Missouri in 1862. The 1870 U.S. Census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed G. Nichols, age 32, a farmhand and Head of Household, his wife, Martha, age 40, a daughter, Alice, age 8, a daughter, Julia, age 6, and a son, John, age 3.

The 1880 U.S. Census for E.D. 206, Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed George Nicholls, age 43, a farmer and Head of Household, his wife, Martha, age 47, keeping house, a daughter, Mary, age 18, a daughter, Julia, age 15, and a son, John, age 12.

George Nichols died sometime before 1900, because the 1900 census reported Martha Nichols as age 67 and a widow. She still lived on the family farm in Missouri with her son, John, and a granddaughter, Rosa Mann.

More About GEORGE NICHOLS:

Occupation: Farmer

Residence: 1880, St. Charles, Missouri

Notes for RACHEL MARTHA MANN:

By 1900, George Nichols was deceased, and Martha Nichols was still living on the farm with her son, John. Also living in the home was Martha's granddaughter, Rosa Mann, age 16, the daughter of Richard Mann and Julia Nichols. Julia Nichols Mann died sometime before 1900, and her daughter was being raised by her grandmother. The 1900 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed John Nicholds, age 32, head of the household, a farmer, single, his mother, Marthy, age 67, a widow, and his niece, Rosa Mann, age 16.

The 1910 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed Rachel M. Nichols, age 76, head of the household, a widow, her son, John W., age 42, single, a farmer, and her granddaughter, Rosie C., age 26. The census record stated that Rachel Nichols had a total of four children of whom two were still living.

Children of GEORGE NICHOLS and RACHEL MANN are:

7. i. MARY ALICE⁵ NICHOLS, b. abt. 1862, state of Kentucky; d. Bet. 1920 - 1930, St. Charles County, Missouri.
8. ii. JULIA A. NICHOLS, b. abt. 1864, state of Missouri; d. bef. 1900.
- iii. JOHN W. NICHOLS, b. December 1867, state of Missouri.

Notes for JOHN W. NICHOLS:

The 1900 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed John Nicholds, age 32, a farmer, single, and head of the household. Also living in the home were his mother, Martha Nichols, age 67, and his niece, Rosa Mann, age 16.

The 1910 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed John W. Nichols, age 42, a farmer, single, living in the household of his widowed mother, Rachel Nichols, age 76. Also living in the home was John Nichols' niece, Rosie Mann, age 26.

4. P. B.⁴ NICHOLS (JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born April 02, 1837 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died March 02, 1921 in Lowder, Sangamon County, Illinois. He married SUSAN FRANCES NICHOLS February 04, 1864 in Barren County, Kentucky, daughter of ABNER NICHOLS and SARAH SLAYTON. She was born February 19, 1839 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died May 09, 1890 in Sangamon County, Illinois.

Notes for P. B. NICHOLS:

His name may have been Phillip B. Nichols although that has not been confirmed. All official records, including tax rolls, census reports, county papers, deeds, etc. usually referred to him as simply "P. B." Nichols.

On February 4, 1864, he married his first cousin, Susan Frances Nichols, the daughter of Abner Nichols. P. B. was almost 27 years old, and Susan was 25. Seven years earlier his brother, William C. Nichols, had married Virginia Nichols, another daughter of Abner Nichols.

P. B. Nichols' name appeared for the first time on the Metcalfe County Personal Property Tax Rolls in the year 1864, where he was listed as "missing," and was assessed no taxes for that year. He was also shown to be enrolled in the Militia, and it may be that he was serving elsewhere as a participant in the Civil War. He was listed again in 1865 as "missing, enrolled in the Militia," but was also shown as the owner of two horses, one cow and 75 bushels of corn. The tax rolls for the year 1867 indicate for the first time that P. B. was a land owner, and he was shown with 40 acres located on Blue Spring Creek with an appraised value of $200. His father, John Nichols, Jr., had sub-divided his 120 acre farm, keeping 40 acres himself, and assigning 40 acres to his brother, George W. Nichols, and 40 acres to his son, P.B. In 1867, P. B. Nichols was once again listed on the Metcalfe County Personal Property Tax Rolls as the owner of two horses, three hogs over the age of 6 months, and 250 bushels of corn. The year 1870 was the last time that his name appeared on the tax rolls for Metcalfe County, and he was still shown to be the owner of 40 acres of land, valued at $240. His other assets included two horses, two cattle, two hogs over 6 months old, 2000 pounds of tobacco, and 175 bushels of corn.

The 1870 U.S. Census for Metcalfe County, Kentucky listed "Pebe" Nickols, age 32, a farmer, his wife, Susan F., age 32, a daughter, Sarah E., age 5, a daughter, Peru, age 3, and a son, Stephen W., age 4 months.

Shortly after 1870, the family left Metcalfe County, Kentucky and moved to Sangamon County, Illinois. The 1880 U.S. Census for Talkington District, Sangamon County, Illinois listed P. B. Nicholls, age 43, a farmer and head of household, his wife, Susan, age 42, keeping house, a daughter, S. E., age 16, a son, "Pern," age 14, a son, Stephen, age 11, a daughter, Ella, age 8, and a daughter, Willmina, age 3. William T. Nichols, a son of Abner Nichols and P.B.'s brother-in-law, also moved from Barren County to the Talkington District of Sangamon County, Illinois, and he also appeared there in the 1880 census. It is likely that the two families traveled there together. (Note: the child listed as "Pern" on the census report and described as a 14 year old son was an error. She was actually a daughter, and her name was Peru.)

Susan F. Nichols and her husband, P. B. Nichols are both mentioned in a deed of conveyance, dated October 14, 1885, in Barren County, Kentucky Circuit Court. Susan was a partial heir to her brother, Lee Nichols' estate. Leroy Nichols had died five years earlier in Sangamon County, Illinois on June 16, 1880, and the Barren County Clerk ordered that three tracts of land belonging to Lee Nichols be sold at public auction with the proceeds to be used to settle his estate. The property was sold on May 18, 1885 to G. H. Sater for the sum of $422.60. The list of legal heirs to the estate of Lee Nichols was identified in the deed of conveyance as follows: John A. Pedigo, John Nichols, C. B. Bailey, Guardian of John H. Anderson and Jnos Anderson, Joseph H. Lyons, Buenavista Gooden, Noah Gooden, William T. Nichols, Susan Nichols, P. B. Nichols, Emma Jane Tolle, Jeanie B. Tolle, Eliza H. Pedigo, Letcher Pedigo, Asher Pedigo, Robert Pedigo, Marcellus George Pedigo, and Wales P. Pedigo. All of the individuals named as heirs at law were either the living siblings of Leroy Nichols, or the children of those siblings who were dead. (Deed Book 21, page 56, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

The 1900 U.S. Census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County, Illinois listed "PeBe" Nichols, age 54, with the occupation of tile ditcher. He is listed as living alone, the owner of his residence (not renting), and a widower, so his wife, Susan, must have died sometime between October 1885 and June 1900. Living nearby, but in separate households, were several close relatives from Kentucky: his son, Stephen Nichols, and his family; his first cousin, John Dabner Nichols, and his family; cousins, Abb Nichols, James Nichols and Maggie Nichols, the children of William T. Nichols; and Robert Z. Nichols, son of John D. Nichols.

P. B. Nichols was living alone in 1910 and appeared in the Sangamon County, Illinois census for that year, listed as head of household, age 70, widowed, with an occupation of Tile Ditcher.

Ten years later an elderly P. B. was found living in the household of his daughter, Peru, and son-in-law, Rafe Lyons. The 1920 census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County listed Rafe Lyons, age 75, as head of household, his wife, Peru, age 53, and father-in-law, Pebe Nichols, age 82, widowed.

The death certificate for P. B. Nichols can be found in the Sangamon County, Illinois courthouse, Certificate No. 5554. P. B. Nichols, born April 2, 1837, Glasgow, Kentucky. Died March 2, 1921, Lowder, Illinois, son of John Nichols and Mary Raines of Kentucky, widower, retired farmer, died of senility complicated by acute kidney disease (nephritis). Signed by Mrs. J. Lyons. (Daughter). Burial in West Cemetery in Virden. (Probably West Grove Cemetery)

Notes for SUSAN FRANCES NICHOLS:

When Abner Nichols died in Barren County, Kentucky, each of his children inherited 1/9 of his estate, which is believed to have consisted of 150 acres of land. In a deed dated September 12, 1874, both Susan F. Nichols and her brother, John D. Nichols, each sold their undivided interest in their father's estate to their brother, Leroy Nichols, for the total sum of $200., of which two notes were issued, each for $100., one to Susan Nichols and one to John D. Nichols. (Deed Book 10, page 373.)

Although the exact date of her death is not known, Susan Nichols died after 1885 and before 1900 almost certainly in Sangamon County, Illinois. She was named in a deed, recorded on October 14, 1885 in the Barren County Court, wherein she was listed as one of the heirs of Abner Nichols and was conveying her interest in the sale of a tract of land. In the 1900 census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County, Illinois, her husband, P. B. Nichols, was listed as a widower.

5. HENRY C.⁵ NELSON (NANCY L.⁴ NICHOLS, JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born November 1849 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died bef. 1920. He married AMANDA JANE WHITLOW January 14, 1869 in Metcalfe County, Kentucky, daughter of WILSON WHITLOW and M. WHITLOW. She was born January 1850 in Cumberland County, Kentucky.

Notes for HENRY C. NELSON:

The Marriage Bond Book for Metcalfe County, Kentucky lists Henry C. Nelson as principal and Wilson Whitlow as surety for a marriage between Henry Nelson, age 22, and "Manday" Jane Whitlow, age 19. (Pages 189, 190) The Bond is dated January 13, 1869, and the marriage was to take place on the following day at the residence of A. Miller performed by M. P. Gooden. Witnesses were A. Miller and James Miller. (Henry Nelson's listed age of 22 years old was a slight exaggeration. He was 19 years old at the time of his marriage, the same age as his bride.)

The 1870 U.S. Census for Rowlett's Station, Hart County, County, Kentucky listed Henry Nelson, age 21, a day laborer and head of the household, his wife, Manda, age 21, and a baby son, William H., age 3 months. Their next door neighbors were Joeb and Mary Whitlow and their children.

By 1880, Henry and Amanda had moved their home to adjoining Green County, Kentucky. The 1880 U.S. Census for District 1, Greensburg, listed Henry Nelson, age 30, a farm laborer and Head of Household, his wife, Mandy J., age 30, a son, William H., age 10, a son, Joseph T., age 8, a daughter, Mary L., age 5, and a son, Claudius J., age 1 year.

Twenty years later, in 1900, the Henry Nelson family was living in southeastern Missouri. The 1900 U.S. Census for Iron Township, St. Francois County, Missouri listed Henry C. Nelson, age 50, a farmer and Head of Household, his wife, Amanda J., age 50, a son, Joseph, age 28, a son, George H., age 19, a daughter, Maggie, age 12, a son, Asa C., age 9, and a daughter, Minnie B., age 3 years. The family left Kentucky and moved to Missouri sometime between 1880 and 1887. According to the 1900 census, Henry and Amanda originally had a total of 11 children, but only 9 had survived. The two children who had died prior to 1900 are believed to have been Mary L. Nelson and Claudius J. Nelson. Both appeared on the 1880 census but are missing in 1900. The oldest son, William H. Nelson, was married in 1900 and living in adjoining Madison County, Missouri.

By 1910, Henry and Amanda Nelson had moved again and were living in Catoosa, Rogers County, Oklahoma in the household of their oldest son, William H. Nelson and his family. The 1910 census for Catoosa listed William H. Nelson, age 40, a carpenter and head of the family, his wife, Bertha, age 29, a daughter, Mary, age 8, a daughter, Katie M., age 6, and a daughter, Grace, age 4 years. Also living in the home were his father, Henry C. Nelson, age 61, a laborer doing odd jobs, his mother, Amanda J., age 61, a brother, Asa C., age 19, a laborer, a sister, Minnie B., age 13, and a brother, Joseph T., age 38. Henry and Amanda had been married for 38 years, and eight of their ten children were still living.

6. ETNA ANN⁵ NELSON (NANCY L.⁴ NICHOLS, JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born July 12, 1860 in Concord, Illinois, and died August 09, 1923 in Clay County, Tennessee. She married WILLIAM ROBERT ALEXANDER MCCLURE GREEN December 19, 1875 in at the home of her parents, Edmonton, Metcalfe County, Kentucky, son of WILLIAM GREEN and MILLY WALKER. He was born February 16, 1842 in Kingston, Roane County, Tennessee, and died October 19, 1919 in Clementsville, Clay County, Tennessee.

Notes for ETNA ANN NELSON:

After the death of her husband in 1919, Etna Green moved into the home of her daughter, Dora Odle, who was a widow with seven children. The 1920 census for District No. 1, Clay County, Tennessee listed Dora Odle, age 35, a widow and head of the family, a son, Terry I., age 17, a farmer, a daughter, Hattie A., age 16, a son, Martin C., age 14, a son, Lucien C., age 12, a daughter, Sarah P., age 9, a daughter, Allie B., age 7, and a daughter, Lucy M., age 4 years, 3 months. Also living in the home was her mother, Etna Green, age 59, a widow, and her brother, Walter Green, age 18, a laborer. The farm was owned by Dora, and was free and clear of a mortgage.

Notes for WILLIAM ROBERT ALEXANDER MCCLURE GREEN:

Marriage Bond for William R. Green and Etna A. Nelson, dated December 16, 1875, Metcalfe County Circuit Court. Surety listed as Demarquis Nelson. Groom age was 32, and bride age was 17. The couple were married on December 19, 1875, at the home of her parents, Demarquis and Nancy Nelson. Witnesses were T. J. Clack and J. A. Pedigo.

The 1900 U.S. Census for District 2, Clay County, Tennessee listed Wm. Green, age 58, a farmer and head of the household, his wife, Etna, age 39, a son, James C., age 17, a daughter, Dora, age 14, a son, Henry, age 12, a daughter, Lucy, age 10, a daughter, Susan, age 5, a son, Luther, age 3, and a daughter, Nellie, age 3 months. The census record stated that the couple had been married for 33 years and nine of their ten children were still living. (Note: William Green and Etna Nelson had been married for approximately 25 years in 1900, not 33 as the census record stated. It is possible that William Green was married before, and the 33 years pertains to both of his marriages.)

7. MARY ALICE⁵ NICHOLS (GEORGE⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1862 in state of Kentucky, and died bet. 1920 and 1930 in St. Charles County, Missouri. She married DANIEL M. EAGAN January 06, 1881 in St. Charles County, Missouri, son of HARRISON M. EAGAN. He was born abt. 1860 in the state of Missouri, and died aft. 1930.

Notes for DANIEL M. EAGAN:

The 1910 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed Harrison M. Eagan, age 75, head of the household and a widower, his son, Dan M., age 50, a farmer, and his daughter-in-law, Alice M., age 48. Dan and Alice had been married for approximately 29 years, and their only child was still living. Living immediately next door to the Eagan farm was John William Eagan, the son of Dan and Alice Eagan.

The 1920 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed Dan Eagan, age 60, head of the household and a farmer, and his wife, Mary Ann, age 57. The couple owned their own place which was free and clear of a mortgage and was located on the Forristell Wentzville Road. Living immediately next door was their son, William Eagan, and his family.

Mary Ann (Nichols) Eagan died sometime between 1920 and 1930. The 1930 census for Cuivre Township, St. Charles County, Missouri listed Dan Eagan, age 70, head of the household, a farmer, and a widower. His son, John William Eagan, lived immediately next door with his family.

More About DANIEL M. EAGAN:

8. JULIA A.⁵ NICHOLS (GEORGE⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1864 in the state of Missouri, and died bef. 1900. She married RICHARD U. MANN December 29, 1882 in St. Charles County, Missouri. He was born in the state of Kentucky.

Notes for JULIA A. NICHOLS:

As far as is known, Julia and Richard Mann had only one child, a daughter, Rosa Mann. Julia Mann died before 1900, and the census for that year shows Rosa, age 16, as being raised by her grandmother, Martha Nichols. The whereabouts of Rosa's father, Richard Mann, could not be determined, and it is not known if he was also deceased or if he had moved away from the area leaving the girl with her grandmother.

Child of JULIA NICHOLS and RICHARD MANN is:

- i. ROSA C.⁶ MANN, b. June 1883, St. Charles County, Missouri.

Notes for ROSA C. MANN:

In 1900, Rosa Mann, age 16, was living in the household of her grandmother, Martha Nichols. Her mother, Julia Mann, was deceased.

9. PERU⁵ NICHOLS (P. B.⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born April 1867 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died August 05, 1935 in Lowder, Sangamon County, Illinois. She married (1) ANDREW J. CATO February 02, 1888 in Sangamon County, Illinois. He was born March 1839 in the state of Illinois, and died October 06, 1902 in Sangamon County, Illinois. She married (2) JAMES RAFF LYONS abt. 1905 prob. in Sangamon County, Illinois, son of HIRAM LYONS and VIRGINIA BUTTON. He was born November 1847 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died bef. 1930.

Notes for PERU NICHOLS:

According to family history her name was pronounced "Pee Roo," and she always wore a lot of purple.

Peru Nichols married Andrew J. Cato on February 2, 1888, in Sangamon County, Illinois. She was 20 and he was 49 years old when they married. Andrew Cato died in 1902, and approximately three years later, Peru married Rafe Lyons, a widower from Barren County, Kentucky. Rafe Lyons' first wife had been Maggie Jewell Claypool, who died in 1903 in Barren County.

More About PERU NICHOLS:

Burial: West Cemetery near Thayer, Sangamon County, Illinois

Notes for ANDREW J. CATO:

The 1900 U.S. Census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County, Illinois listed Andrew J. Cato, age 61, as head of household with the occupation of day laborer, his wife, Peru, age 32, a Washer Woman, and a daughter, Hazel M., age 10. The census record also indicated that the couple had been married for 12 years and that they had had three children, only one of whom still survived (Hazel). Andrew Cato was listed as having been born in the state of Illinois, and his parents were from the state of Tennessee.

Ten years later, Peru Nichols Cato was shown to have remarried to Rafe Lyons, the marriage having taken place five years earlier. It is presumed that Andrew J. Cato died sometime before 1905, probably in Sangamon County.

More About ANDREW J. CATO:

Cause of Death: Dropsy

Occupation: Day Laborer

Notes for JAMES RAFF LYONS:

By 1910, census records showed that Peru Nichols Cato had been remarried for five years to Rafe Lyons. It was the second marriage for both. The Talkington Township census listed Rafe Lyons, age 62, as head of household with the occupation of laborer, his wife, Peru, age 43, a daughter, Hazel, age 18, and a son, Dink, age 35, working as a farm laborer. It is assumed that Peru's first husband, Andrew Cato, died sometime before 1905 as he would have been in his mid-60's by then. Dink Lyons was undoubtedly the son of Rafe Lyons and his first wife.

Ten years later, Peru's father, P. B. Nichols, by then an old man, had moved into her home. The 1920 U.S. Census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County, Illinois listed Rafe Lyons, age 75, as head of household and a laborer, his wife, Peru, age 53, and Pebe Nichols, age 82, father-in-law. Also living in the household was Frank Johnson, a boarder.

The 1930 census for Talkington Township listed Peru Lyons, age 64, a widow, living alone as head of the household. She rented her home and lived next door to her daughter, Hazel Kingsbury.

10. STEPHEN W.⁵ NICHOLS (P. B.⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born February 12, 1870 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died October 12, 1918 in Lowder, Sangamon County, Illinois. He married TESSIE "DOLLIE" JENKINS October 06, 1894 in Sangamon County, Illinois. She was born June 1875 in the state of Illinois.

Notes for STEPHEN W. NICHOLS:

The 1900 U.S. Census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County, Illinois named Stephen Nichols, age 29, a day laborer, his wife, Tessie D., age 24, a daughter, Edith P., age 5, and a daughter, Elsie M., age 1 year. The couple had been married for six years, and they owned their own home. Living nearby were several close relatives from Kentucky, including his father, P. B. Nichols (now a widower), and his cousins, Abner Nichols, James Nichols, and Maggie Nichols (children of William T. Nichols), and Robert Nichols (son of John Dabner Nichols).

The 1910 U.S. Census for Talkington Township, Sangamon County, Illinois listed Stephen Nichols, age 39, a tile ditcher and head of the household, his wife, Dolly, age 34, a daughter, Pearl E., age 15, a daughter, Elve M., age 11, a daughter, Goldy, age 7, a son, Daly, age 4, and a daughter, Cora, age 1 year, 9 months. The census record also indicated that of the couple's six children, only five were still living.

Stephen Nichols died in Lowder, Sangamon County, Illinois in the year 1918 at about 47 years of age. The 1920 census for Talkington Township listed only Dollie Nickoles, age 44, as head of family and a widow, a daughter, Cora, age 10, and a daughter, Fern, age 9. Dollie was a laundress working at home.

Notes for JOHN C. WILLIAMS:

The 1900 census for Ward 3, Girard Township, Macoupin County, Illinois listed John Williams, age 41, a coal miner and head of the family, his wife, Ella, age 28, a daughter, Ethel, age 6, and a daughter, __shel D., age 3 years old. The couple had been married for 8 years and both of their children were still living.

John C. Williams, laborer, and his wife, Ella, appeared in the 1908 City Directory for Alton, Illinois. Their residence was given as 621 East Third Street.

The 1910 census for Ward No. 3, Alton, Madison County, Illinois named John C. Williams, age 51, head of the household, employed as a laborer in a factory, his wife, Ella L., age 36, a daughter, Ethel W., age 16, a daughter, Ursial D., age 13, a son, Frank M., age 9, a daughter, Flossie A., age 5, and a son, Terrance R., age 2. The couple had been married for approximately 17 years, and all five of their children were still living.

The 1920 census for Alton City, Madison County, Illinois listed John Williams, age 62, head of the household, employed as a laborer in an oil company, his wife, Ella, age 44, a son, Frank, age 18, and a daughter, Flossie, age 15. The couple rented their home.

The 1924 City Directory for Alton, Illinois listed John C. Williams and his wife, Ella, living at 120 West Broadway. He was employed by Western Cartridge Company.

Shortly after his wife died, in 1932, John C. Williams moved in with the family of his son, Frank Williams, where he would reside until his death in 1943. The 1935 City Directory for Alton, Illinois lists Frank Williams and his wife, Lillie, and John C. Williams all residing at 2004 Sycamore Street.

J. C. WILLIAMS DIES AT AGE 85 (from The Alton Evening Telegraph, Alton, Ill., December 20, 1943, Pg. 2)

John C. Williams, 85, who was brought to Illinois by his parents from the South during the Civil War after their home had been burned by the invading army, died at 9:15 p.m. Sunday in St. Joseph's Hospital about six hours after he had been taken there.

Williams, who made his home with a son, Frank Williams, at 221 Shaw, had been ill of a respiratory ailment for a week before entering the hospital. He was moved there by ambulance Sunday afternoon and died about six hours later.

He was born in Cleveland, Tenn., a member of a large family. His mother died at Jacksonville, Ill., about three weeks after her arrival there, due to suffering from exposure during their trip from the South.

He remained in the Jacksonville area until he reached manhood and then returned to the South where he engaged in the coal mining industry. At the beginning of World War I he returned to Madison county to work at Western Cartridge Co. He worked at the east Alton industry until 1931 when he retired.

His only survivors are his son, Frank, a daughter, Mrs. Leroy Deucker, both of Alton, and 11 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a.m. at Old Cathedral. Burial will be in Valhalla Memorial Park. The body is at Gent Funeral Home where friends may call after 7 p.m. today. The rosary will be recited at the funeral home at 8 p.m. Tuesday.
