

CHAPTER EIGHT

Thomas Nichols and Descendants

Generation No. 2

1. THOMAS³ NICHOLS (JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1807 in Mercer County, Kentucky, and died abt. 1885 in Barren County, Kentucky. He married (1) LUCY MCCOY RANES November 21, 1828 in Barren County, Kentucky, daughter of EPHRAIM RANES and NANCY RANES. She was born July 1809 in the state of Virginia, and died March 1872 in Barren County, Kentucky. He married (2) MARTHA ATNIP June 18, 1876 in Barren County, Kentucky. He married (3) REBECCA SMITH 1877 in Barren County, Kentucky. She was born abt. 1820 in the state of North Carolina.

Notes for THOMAS NICHOLS:

Thomas Nichols was the seventh child of John and Nancy Nichols and the first to be born in the state of Kentucky. He was born about 1807, in Mercer County, Kentucky, where the family lived for several years after moving there from Virginia in 1805. He would have been about 5 years old when his parents settled on Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County.

Thomas Nichols and his brother, John Nichols Jr., married sisters; John marrying Mary Ranes about 1824, and Thomas marrying Lucy Ranes on November 21, 1828.

The 1840 census for Barren County, Kentucky listed Tho. Nicholas as head of the household with the following family distribution: one male, age less than 5, one male, age between 25 and 30, two females, age less than 5, one female, age 10 to 15, and one female, age 25 to 30.

In the 1850 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky, Thomas Nichols, age 43, is listed as head of household and a farmer, with real estate appraised at $400. Also listed in the household were his wife, Lucy, age 41, and the following children: America J., age 20, Missouri A., age 18, Alabama E., age 17, Mary V., age 13, Leroy, age 11, Bird W., age 8, Thomas M., age 7, Lucy M., age 5, and Willis A., age 8 months.

By 1860, three of Thomas and Lucy's children were no longer living in the home, having either died or married and moved away to begin their own families. America Nichols died in 1857 at the age of 28. Mary V. Nichols married Joel Tolle and they were living in the household next door to her parents. Alabama Nichols married William Thomas Bowles in 1858. The 1860 census for Barren County listed Thomas Nichols, age 55, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Lucy M., age 52, a daughter, Missouri M., age 28, a son, Henry L., age 21, a son, Bird W., age 18, a son, Thomas J., age 17, a daughter, Lucy M., age 15, and a son, "Willi," age 11.

In the Barren County Clerk's Office there are numerous land transactions recorded for Thomas Nichols spanning a period of some forty years, and family history says that he owned much of the land around Elbow Spring, including the spring itself. County land records reveal that at any one time, his land holdings usually ran between 350 and 400 acres. His home was located on the old Burkesville Road about one hundred yards east of Elbow Spring.

“Elbow Springs received its name from the stream that flows from a stone basin – a seam in the rock forming a perfect elbow – near the site of the old post office.

“In the early days it was a favorite camping place for travelers, who would build camp fires along the gravel beds of the small stream a few steps away, where they would prepare their meals. The spring, although on private property, was never closed to the public. There was ample space for stock and their covered wagons without obstructing the road. The traveler would usually sleep in his wagon, but if the weather was warm he would sometime spread his blanket on the ground, and here, canopied only by the arch of the sky, he would soon fall fast asleep after a long tiresome journey over rough and unimproved roads.” (C. C. Simmons, 1940 – 1948)

Thomas Nichols was postmaster of the Elbow Spring post office when it was first established on February 25, 1870, which lasted until September 16, 1872, after which the post office became a store. After Thomas Nichols’ death, his son, Byrd Nichols, ran the store at Elbow Spring for many years. About thirty years later, on May 14, 1902, a post office was re-established in the area but at a slightly different location, about one mile down the road from the Elbow Spring store. According to family history, Byrd Nichols’ younger brother, Willis Nichols, opened a store at the intersection of the Burkesville Road and the Vernon School Road which was in direct competition with the store at Elbow Spring. Willis Nichols became the postmaster at the new location, but that post office was also discontinued after only a couple of years.

On May 22, 1844, Charles Perkins conveyed to Thomas Nichols a certain tract of land located on Fallen Timber Creek, containing some 200 acres by survey. Thomas Nichols paid $332. cash-in-hand for the land, which had been entered and surveyed for John West and patented to Charles Perkins. (Deed Book R, page 265.)

By a deed dated November 26, 1851, Thomas Nichols sold to his brother, Phillip M. Nichols, a 24 acre tract adjoining his existing land, for the sum of $40 cash-in-hand. (Deed Book T, page 468.)

On April 21, 1852, Thomas Nichols sold 27 acres to a neighbor, James M. Piercy, for the sum of $108. (Deed Book X, page 126.) Nine years later, his son, Henry Lee Nichols, would marry Sally Piercy, the daughter of James M. Piercy.

In a deed of conveyance, dated June 17, 1853, Nancy Nichols, the widow of John Nichols and the mother of Thomas Nichols, agreed to convey to her son, Thomas, all her rights and interest in a certain piece of land which she held as dower from her deceased husband. In return, Thomas Nichols agreed to care for his mother in his own home and provide her board and clothing and to give her whatever was necessary and suitable for a person of her age. (Deed Book V, page 397.)

On September 2, 1852, by order of the Barren County Court, the lands of John Nichols, deceased, were sold at public auction, with the proceeds from that sale to be divided among the heirs. The sale was ordered as the result of an equity suit filed by Leroy Nichols, a son of the deceased John Nichols, in order to settle his father’s estate. At the sale, Thomas Nichols purchased about 120 acres for $185, and Leroy Nichols purchased the remaining 70 acres for $50. The deed of conveyance granting Thomas Nichols 120 acres was dated August 3, 1853. (Deed Book V, page 615.)

On October 1, 1855, Thomas Nichols sold a two and one half acre tract of land located on the Burkesville Road to Campbell Glover for the sum of $20 cash-in-hand. (Deed Book X, page 250.)

In a deed of conveyance, dated January 12, 1857, Thomas Nichols purchased a 66 acre tract of land, located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek, from Joseph T. Pursley and his wife, Sophronia Nichols Pursley, for the sum of $264 cash-in-hand. Sophronia was Thomas's niece, the daughter of his deceased brother, Richard Nichols. (Deed Book 2, page 480.)

On May 16, 1860, Thomas Nichols sold to William Thomas Bowles, for $600 cash-in-hand, the original tract of land where his father, John Nichols, had established the family home some 48 years earlier. Located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek, the tract was comprised of 168 acres and included the old home place. (Deed Book 2, page 247.) William Thomas Bowles was the son-in-law of Thomas Nichols, having married his daughter, Alabama Elizabeth Nichols, two years earlier. After Tom Bowles died, Alabama Bowles, or "Aunt Bam," as she was called by family, continued to live in the old home place for many years.

According to a lease dated January 17, 1865, Thomas and Lucy Nichols, his wife, leased 200 acres to J.R. and W.F. Redding, for a term of 30 years, for the purpose of exploring the property for oil, natural gas, salt, coal or other minerals. Thomas Nichols was granted a royalty of 10% should minerals be found, and it was agreed that a borehole would be commenced within three years. If minerals were not discovered in economic quantities within three years, the lease would revert back to Thomas and Lucy Nichols.

On February 10, 1866, Thomas Nichols purchased a tract of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek containing 78 and 3/4 acres from Clement Winegar for the sum of $500 cash-in-hand. (Deed Book 5, page 262.)

The 1870 census for Glasgow Precinct, Barren County, Kentucky listed Thomas Nickols, age 63, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Lucy M., age 60, a daughter, Missouri, age 38, a seamstress, and a son, Willis A., age 20. The family real estate was appraised at $900., and personal property was valued at $900.

In two separate deeds of conveyance, both dated August 12, 1872, Thomas Nichols, then 65 years old, sold land located on Fallen Timber Creek to two of his sons, Byrd W. Nichols and Willis A. Nichols. To Byrd W. Nichols, he sold a tract containing 144 acres for the sum of $400 of which $200 was paid cash-in-hand and the remainder to be paid on demand with two percent interest starting from the date of purchase until paid off. (Deed Book 8, page 502.) To Willis A. Nichols, he sold a tract containing 129 acres for the sum of $400 of which $200 was paid cash-in-hand and the remainder was also to be paid on demand with two percent interest starting from the date of purchase. (Deed Book 8, page 506.) It was further agreed in the deed to Willis that Thomas would reserve for himself a certain field lying on the south side of the Burkesville Road, including all the buildings, all together about 20 acres, to use for the rest of his natural life, and at his death to revert to the said Willis A. Nichols.

On August 13, 1879, Thomas Nichols purchased a 14 acre tract located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek from his son, Willis A. Nichols, for the sum of $50. (Deed Book 14, page 470) In another deed, dated the same day, he proceeded to sell the same 14 acre tract to Mary Denham for the equivalent price of $50. (Deed Book 16, page 232.) Three years later, on August 13, 1882, he repurchased the 14 acre tract from Mary Denham for $140 (Deed Book 17, page 354), and then resold the tract to his son, Henry Lee Nichols, for the sum of $110. (Deed Book 22, page 254.)

Approximately four years after the death of his first wife, Lucy Ranes, Thomas Nichols married for the second time to Martha Atnip on June 18, 1876, in Barren County. She was a widow from Warren County, Tennessee who had moved to Barren County a few years earlier with her son and his family. Thomas was almost 70 years old at the time, and Martha was about 59. The marriage did not work out, however, and on September 1, 1877, Thomas Nichols, as the plaintiff, filed suit in the Barren County Circuit Court, asking the court for a divorce on grounds of abandonment.

Barren County Circuit Court, Case No. 4245
Thomas Nichols, Plaintiff vs. Martha Nichols, Defendant

"The Plaintiff, Thomas Nichols, states that on the 18th of June, 1876, he and the Defendant, Martha Nichols, were married in Barren County, Ky. and lived together as man and wife until the 6th day of August, 1876, when the Defendant, Martha Nichols, without fault on his part, abandoned him and his home and separated herself from him to live separate and apart from him, from the 6th day of August, 1876, up to this day, without any cohabitation between them during this time. He further states that during the time that he and Defendant lived together, he was kind and affectionate to the Defendant, and that she abandoned him without any fault on his part. He further states that he has continuously resided in this state for more than one year past, that the Defendant has lived in this county and state ever since their marriage, and she still lives in this county and state, and that her abandonment of him occurred in this state and within the last five years. He further states that the Defendant removed with her and now has all the property she had at the time of her intermarriage. Wherefore he seeks and prays for a Judgment of this Court divorcing him from the Bond of Matrimony with the said Defendant and for all general, special and proper relief."

Depositions were filed in court in support of the Plaintiff by neighbors, George Rowland and Ferris Speers and by his son, Willis A. Nichols. All three men testified as to the exact day that the Defendant moved out and to the kind treatment provided her by the Plaintiff. The Judgment of the Barren County Court, handed down in October, 1877, was that the Bonds of Matrimony that was previously existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant be dissolved, and that the Plaintiff, Thomas Nichols, be divorced from the Defendant, Martha Nichols, and return to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried man. It was further ordered that the Plaintiff pay all the costs of the suit.

Shortly after his divorce from Martha, Thomas Nichols married for the third time to Rebecca Smith. The 1880 census for Glasgow Junction, Barren County, Kentucky lists Thos. Nickols, age 73, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Rebecca, age 60, keeping house, and a boarder, John B. Smith, age 19, working on the farm.

Thomas Nichols died about 1885 and is buried along side his wife, Lucy, in the Bowles Cemetery in Barren County. Unfortunately, the exact location of their graves can no longer be identified.

Notes for CHARLES BYRD BOWLES:

"Charlie Byrd had a neighbor who lied all the time. Charlie got so upset because this man was always telling lies and stretching the truth that he finally had a sign painted which he nailed up outside on his barn wall. The sign read, "The difference between a liar and a damn liar is that a liar tells lies for what he can gain from it, and a damn liar tells lies just to be lying." That sign stayed up on his barn for many years until the farm was auctioned off and the barn torn down." (personal communication from Chester Ward, Glasgow, Kentucky.)

The 1920 census for Temple Hill District No. 3, Barren County, Kentucky listed Charlie B. Bowles, age 45, a farmer and head of the household, and his wife, Mary E., age 39. The census record indicated that the couple owned their place free and clear of a mortgage.

Charlie and Mollie Bowles had no children. At their death, they left a will stating that everything they had was to be sold and the proceeds were to go toward the maintenance of what was then known as the Nichols Cemetery. Afterwards, the official name for the cemetery was changed to the "Bowles Cemetery."

In 1870, Joel "Jack" Tolle and his wife, Mary, left Barren County and traveled by wagon train to McPherson County, Kansas. They were accompanied by several other close relatives, and they were all moving to Kansas in order to claim homesteads near Jack's brother, Joseph T. Tolle, who had settled there three years earlier. Others in the party were Mary's brother, Thomas J. The 1910 census for South Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska listed Samuel Tolle, age 42, single and head of the household, employed as a laborer in a Rig Company.

"Sam lived in Omaha, Nebraska and worked for the railroad, not sure which one, but I'm sure there were several that intersected there. Sounded like Sam did a lot of fighting and drinking in his day and was even on trial for murder at one time. He was acquitted as the court determined it was self defense. My grandmother, Velma, never mentioned this to anyone until late in her life, as I guess it was supposed to be a family secret. I think she may have forgotten about him until I showed her some material. Sam did not marry and had no children that anyone knew of." (personal communication from Gail Lee Reed, a grandson of Velma Nierstheimer Reed.)

He was called Lee Nichols, and his nickname was "Frosty Lee."

Approximately five years after Henry Leroy Nichols and Sally Piercy married, he purchased his first tract of land. On December 17, 1866, Henry L. In a lease agreement, dated February 28, 1890, H. L. Nichols of Slick Rock, Kentucky leased to James J. the same tract of land that Henry Lee purchased nine years earlier from his father, Thomas Nichols, for $110. (Deed Book 34, page 94, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

Lee Nichols' first wife, Sarah Piercy, died on February 13, 1902 at the age of 65 years old. Approximately nine months later, Lee married for the second time to a widow, Sarah Jane Pedigo Hurt. The couple married in neighboring Metcalfe County on November 23, 1902.

Notes for JAMES THOMAS NICHOLS:

"When the first phonograph came around, James Thomas Nichols bought one and went around to people's houses and let them listen to records. These records were a cylinder about three inches long, and the phonograph had a big horn attached to it to let the sound out. Then when the first movies came out, he also bought one and people congregated to watch the movie. The first movie showed people walking up a railroad track, and the movements were very stiff and jerky." (As written by Ruby Ward remembering when she was young.)

She was born February 05, 1843 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died April 24, 1929 in Barren County, Kentucky.

Notes for BYRD WHITE NICHOLS:

His first name was alternately spelled "Byrd" and "Bird."

On November 16, 1868, B. W. Nichols purchased at public auction a tract containing 50 acres for the sum of $225 cash-in-hand. The deed to this property was officially granted on September 12, 1871. (Deed Book 8, page 121, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

The 1870 U.S. Census for Barren County, Glasgow Precinct, listed Bird W. Nichols, age 28, a Farmer, as Head of Family, with his wife, Cynthia A., age 28, a son, Edwin L., age 5, a son, Haden, age 3, and a daughter age 1 year old. Also living in the home was Cynthia's mother, Mary Tolle, age 62.

On February 3, 1871, a legal instrument was certified by the Barren County Court Clerk in which

William A. Tolle and Frances A. Tolle, his wife, and R. T. Burch and Mary Burch, his wife, made and appointed B. W. Nichols of Glasgow as their true and lawful attorney, giving him full power and authority to bargain, sell and convey all lands belonging to them in Barren County. (Deed Book 7, page 479.)

In a deed, dated August 12, 1872, Thomas Nichols sold to his son, Bird W. Nichols, a certain tract of land situated on Fallen Timber Creek containing 144 acres, for the sum of $400 of which $200 was paid cash-in-hand and the remainder was to be paid on demand with two percent interest charged beginning at the date of sale until the final payment was made. (Deed Book 8, page 502.)

On February 24, 1874, Bird W. Nichols sold to P. B. Nichols, his first cousin, a certain tract of land located on Fallen Timber Creek for the sum of $338 cash-in-hand. (Deed Book 10, page 367, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

The 1880 Census for Saunders District No. 6, Barren County listed Bird W. Nichols, age 38, a farmer, his wife, Cynthia A., age 38, a son, Edwin L., age 15, a farm laborer, a son, Hadin, age 13, a farm laborer, a daughter, Mary S., age 11, a daughter, Lucy A., age 8, a son, Joseph A., age 6, a son, Thomas D., age 4, a son, Osman P., age 2, and a son, Victor L., age 10 months.

The 1900 U.S. Census for District 3, Barren County, Kentucky listed B. W. Nichols, age 58, as Head of Household, his wife, C. A., age 58, a daughter, Mollie, age 31, and sons, J. A., age 26, T. D., age 24, and V. L., age 20.

"The Byrd White Nichols house was built of logs and located on the side of the hill across the branch from Elbow Springs. Walkers had to cross the branch on a high, narrow foot-log. The road that led to the house was steep, and a team of mules or horses had to pull really hard to get a wagon up the hill and to the barn, which was located on a slate-rock hill. The house was one and a half stories high with two big rooms and a big hall downstairs. In each big room were stairways that led to the two big rooms upstairs. The hall was ten or twelve feet wide. The only heat in the big downstairs rooms was by fireplace. The upstairs rooms had no heat at all, and on snowy nights the snow would blow in between the logs and cover the blankets of the sleepers. They had big featherbeds and straw to sleep on.

"Later, Byrd had the side of the hill dug down and built on a kitchen of sawed lumber. When it snowed, the snow would blow down in the dugout place that was to let light enter the kitchen windows and would fill up that place until it covered the windows. The yard was sloping and full of rocks protruding out of the ground. There were damsons, ring-jaw apples and grapevines in the yard, which was surrounded by a plank fence." (From the personal memories of Lucy Nichols Ward.)

Byrd W. Nichols died on September 21, 1907 and is buried in the Bowles Cemetery.

Notes for MARY SUSAN "MOLLIE" NICHOLS:

The following excerpt was taken from a personal letter written by Lillie Bailey to her stepmother, Molly Nichols Bailey, immediately after the death of Lillie's brother, Fletcher Bailey, Jr.:

"Mother, how are you? I know you thought so much of Fletcher, too. He was only a little boy when you came to be our mother, and you've been a real mother to all of us. I don't know how Dadda and us children would made out if you hadn't come to be with us. I think that we have two parents that no one could say one word against. Now that is something for us all to be proud of. And I think you have raised a bunch of children to be proud of. None of us are rich in money but rich with love for you both and each other.

"We know its hard to give him up, but I believe he is in a better world, for I heard lots about him living right, and he was always a good boy, and tried to treat everyone right.

"Well I'll try to write again soon when I feel more like writing. Take care of yourselves and, mother write us."

Love and sympathy,

Bailey, age 47, as Head of Household, his wife, Mary S., age 41, and children, Ernest, age 19, Mamie, age 17, Lillie, age 12, Maud, age 8, and Sam F., Jr., age 7. These were the children of Samuel Bailey and his first wife, Louise, and it is assumed that she died sometime between 1903 and 1910. Samuel Bailey then married Molly Nichols in 1910 shortly before this census was taken. Ten years earlier, in the 1900 U.S. Census, Samuel Bailey was shown with his first wife, Louise, age 31. A SAD LIFE IS ENDED

The death of Mr. Victor Nickols, at Elbow Springs, last Friday, ended the life of a good man, but an unfortunate one. He was a life long cripple and was also afflicted with epilepsy. It was in one of these attacks that he fell on a broken glass, can or knife, it is not known which, and severed his jugular vein and bled to death. 6. THOMAS JAMES⁴ NICHOLS (THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born January 15, 1844 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died March 06, 1926 in McPherson County, Kansas. He married LUCINDA JANE TOLLE December 28, 1864 in Barren County, Kentucky, daughter of SAMUEL TOLLE and MARY SNODDY. She was born January 06, 1838 in near Glasgow, Barren County, Kentucky, and died April 28, 1918 in Roxbury, Kansas.

Notes for THOMAS JAMES NICHOLS:

Thomas James Nichols married Lucinda Jane Tolle on December 28, 1864, in Barren County, Kentucky. He was two weeks shy of his 21st birthday, and she was almost 26 years old.

Lucinda's father, Samuel Bell Tolle, died in April 1868 without having made a Last Will and Testament. Approximately seven months after his death, Thomas and Lucinda Nichols were named as the plaintiffs in an equity lawsuit filed in the Barren County Circuit Court in order to divide his estate among his legal heirs.

Barren County Circuit Court, Case No. 3623, Filed November 17, 1868.

Thomas J. Nichols and Lucinda Tolle Nichols (plaintiffs)

Allen D. Tolle, Joel S. Tolle, Joseph T. Tolle, John J. Tolle, Samuel F. Tolle, Mary A. Tolle, Rachel E. Tolle, and Anna Tolle (defendants)

The plaintiffs, Thomas Nichols and Lucinda Nichols, state that Samuel T. Tolle departed this life on the day of ____ leaving his only children and heirs at law: plaintiff Lucinda Nichols, wife of plaintiff Thomas Nichols; his wife, defendant Anna Tolle; his daughters, defendants Mary A. Tolle and Rachel E. Tolle; and his sons, defendants Allen D. Tolle, Joseph T. Tolle, Joel S. Tolle, John J. Tolle, and Samuel S. Tolle. They also state that said Samuel T. Tolle died intestate in Barren County and possessed a tract of land on which he died located a few miles east of Glasgow.

They state that defendants Allen D. Tolle, Joseph T. Tolle, Joel S. Tolle, John J. Tolle, and Samuel F. Tolle are all non-residents of Kentucky and that said Mary A. Tolle, Rachel E. Tolle and Samuel F. Tolle are infants under the age of 21 years of age. They state that they, the plaintiffs and the defendants, are owners of said land by virtue of being immediate family of said decedent. They state that said tract of land was conveyed to said decedent by deed by which a duly authenticated copy is filed herewith and that said widow is entitled to one third of said land as dower. They pray that the title of same be assigned to her by metes and bounds according to the course and practice of this court and that the remainder thereof be sold and the proceeds divided among the plaintiffs and the defendants as they are entitled to receive the same.

Judgment, dated 1870

The court ordered that the tract of land be sold at auction, and after payment of court costs, taxes, various fees, totaling $79.35, that the widow, Anna Tolle, receive $70.00, and that each of the following children receive one ninth of the remainder: Lucinda Nichols, Allen Tolle, Joseph Tolle, John Tolle, Mary Tolle, Joel Tolle, Samuel Tolle, Rachel Tolle, and Henry B. Tolle.

Approximately five years after they were married, Thomas and Lucinda Jane Nichols left Barren County, Kentucky and traveled by wagon train to what is today Roxbury, McPherson County, Kansas. On their journey, they were accompanied by several other families, all related to one another, and they had migrated west to join other kinfolk, who had settled there three years earlier. In 1867, Joseph Turner Tolle and his wife, Martha Jane Ward, homesteaded 160 acres near Roxbury, Kansas. Martha Jane Ward was a first cousin to Thomas J. Nichols, and Joseph Tolle was a brother of Lucinda Jane Tolle. Once Joseph and Martha Jane Tolle were settled in the Roxbury area and had corresponded with their relatives back in Kentucky, plans were soon laid for the others to follow.

It is certain that at least four related families traveled to Kansas as a group in 1870, and there may have been additional neighbors from Barren County who made the trip also. In addition to Thomas and Lucinda Jane Nichols were: John James Tolle and his wife, Lucinda Nichols (daughter of Abner K. Nichols); Joel Lee "Jack" Tolle and his wife, Mary Virginia Nichols (daughter of Thomas Nichols and a sister to Thomas J. Nichols); and Mary E. Tolle and her husband, Robert Franklin Burch (son of Anne Nichols and Robert B. Burch). Joseph T. Tolle, Lucinda Jane Tolle, John James Tolle and Joel "Jack" Tolle were siblings. Mary E. Tolle was a first cousin.

Note: Between 1858 and 1870, six grandchildren of John Nichols married six grandchildren of William Tolle in Barren County, Kentucky. By the end of 1870, five of these couples were residing on homesteads located near each other in the vicinity of Roxbury, Kansas. Only Byrd W. Nichols and his wife, Cynthia Ann Tolle, remained behind in Barren County. The major attraction for most Americans who traveled west was the possibility of getting free or inexpensive good quality land. The Homestead Act of 1862 allowed citizens to settle up to 160 acres of public land and receive title to that land after residing there for five years.

Thomas J. Nichols' homestead was located on 160 acres about one mile west of the town site, which at the time was only buffalo grass, sage brush, wild flowers and a few cottonwood trees. Their children were the first children to attend school there. Thomas Nichols helped build the first schoolhouse and a Baptist church, both later destroyed by fire, the church in 1919 and the schoolhouse in 1927.

The following biographical sketch was taken from a history of McPherson County, Kansas:

"Thomas J. Nichols. The fine farm on section 28, Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, is owned by Thomas J. Nichols, who was born in Barren County, Ky., January 15, 1844. Reared in his native county, he remained there until 25 years of age. He was reared a farmer lad, and received a common-school education. He followed agricultural pursuits in his native county, and learned many practical lessons that have been of the greatest use to him in later life. Our subject came to McPherson County, Kan., in 1870, and settled on the farm where he now lives. He secured the land, which comprises one hundred and sixty acres, under the Homestead Act. Ever since locating here he has been devoted to general agriculture business and stock raising. His farm is at the present time in excellent condition, and his buildings are good and comfortable, nay, even more, they are far more attractive in appearance than the average farm places in the East.

"While still residing in his native county, our subject was married, December 8, 1865, to Miss Lucinda J. Tolle, like himself a Kentuckian, and of the same county. They have had six children: Lela F., the eldest one, is the wife of George Nirider; Mary L. is the wife of Frank Writer. The others are: Ella F., Haden O., Dora A., and Nettie J.

"Mr. Nichols would be less a Kentuckian than he is did he not take an active interest in political and local affairs. Educational matters have always called forth his warmest interests, and he has been an advocate of all new and improved methods which promise to raise the coming generation to a higher appreciation of the true and the beautiful than those that the present generation has been brought up on. He has held various offices in connection with the schools. Both he and his wife are members of the Predestinarian Baptist Church. Our subject's father was Thomas Nichols, and his mother in maidenhood was Lucy M. Rains. Both of them were natives of West Virginia. They died in Barren County, Ky.

"Mr. Nichols is one of the older settlers in this locality, and being a practical and successful farmer and a man of superior judgment and ability, he is looked up to with great respect by all his associates. As our subject's was one of the first families to settle in this township, they had many hardships and privations to go through, and have often been visited by Indians. Since locating here, large herds of cattle from Texas were often seen by our subject."

The 1880 U.S. Census for Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, Kansas listed Thom J. Nichols, age 36, a farmer and head of the household, his wife, Lucinda J., age 42, a daughter, Ida F., age 12, a daughter, Mary L., age 11, a daughter, Ella F., age 8, a son, Haden O., age 5, a daughter, Dora A., age 3, and a daughter, Nettie J., age 3 months. Living on the adjoining farm was Thomas and Lucinda's brother and sister, Joel and Mary Tolle. The two couples traveled to Kansas from Barren County, Kentucky together.

The 1900 census for Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, Kansas listed T. J. Nichols, age 56, a farmer and head of the household, his wife, L. J., age 62, and a daughter, D. A., age 23. Also living in the home were O. J. Writer, age 8, a granddaughter, and T. N. Writer, age 5, a grandson. Thomas J. Nichols' daughter, Mary Nichols Writer, had died 4 years earlier, on August 11, 1896, and her two children were being raised by their grandparents.

The 1910 census for Gypsum Creek Township listed Thomas J. Nichols, age 66, head of the family and a farmer, his wife, Lucinda J., age 72, and a grandson, Thomas N. Writer, age 15 years old. The couple had been married for 43 years, and five of their six children were still living. Living next door to Thomas J. and Lucinda was their son, Haden O. Nichols and his family.

Golden Wedding (from The Pilot, Canton, Kansas, December 1914)

Miss Lucinda Jane Tolle and Thomas J. Nichols were married in Roscoe (sic), Barren County, Kentucky, Dec. 8, 1864. They came to Kansas seven years later and homesteaded the farm, one and a half miles southwest of Roxbury where they have since made their home. Their descendants are six children, thirty one grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

In response to invitations about one hundred twenty five relatives and neighbors met at their home Wednesday, Dec. 8, 1914, to help them celebrate their golden wedding. A bountiful dinner was served after which Rev. Mr. M. J. Lott in behalf the neighbors presented each of them with a leather seated rocker, a gold watch fob and bar breast pin, respectively and from the family a silver gold lined cream and sugar set, spoon tray and two five dollar gold pieces.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Lott voiced the thoughts of the company when he asserted that Mr. and Mrs. Nichols have always been good neighbors, and have quietly exerted an influence for good in the community. Short talks by Harry Tolle of California and S. F. Tolle of Roxbury, both brothers of the bride, were followed by congratulations and a visit.

"God be with you," lined by the Pastor was sung by the company and one of the nicest social events of the year was closed by the benediction.

The 1920 census for Gypsum Creek Township listed Thomas Nichols, age 75, a widower, head of the household, and his grandson, Thomas Writer, a farm laborer. Located immediately next door was the household of Thomas Nichols' son, Hayden Nichols.

Notes for LUCINDA JANE TOLLE:

Obituary of Mrs. Lucinda Jane Nichols

Lucinda Jane Tolle was born near Glasgow, Barren County, Ky., January __ 1836, and departed this life at Roxbury, Kansas, April 28th, 1918, being 80 years, 3 months and 22 days of age. On December 8th, 1864 she was married to Thomas J. Nichols, who survives her.

She joined the Methodist Church when a girl of some 14 or 16 years of age, in which she remained a member after coming to Kansas, when sometime in the in the eighties she united with the Primitive Baptist Church where she remained a member until the time of her death.

She was the mother of five daughters and one son, all of whom survive her except Mrs. Mary L. Writer, who preceded her August 11th, 1896. She also leaves to mourn her departure besides the husband and children 35 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren, two brothers, S. F. Tolle of Roxbury, Kansas, and H. B. Tolle of Paso Robles, Cal., and a host of other relatives and friends.

She came with her husband and two oldest daughters to Kansas in March 1870 and settled upon a homestead where she remained until the time of her departure.

But she is gone from us now. We shall see her face no more, neither in the home, nor in the church, nor among her children who live to call her blessed. But on Heaven's fair shore we hope to meet her in God's good time, for we feel sure she is at rest. We believe the God of all grace bestowed mercy upon her in her early years and granted her the gift of life eternal, in consequences of which she now enjoys the celestial world and awaits the resurrection of the just.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church in Roxbury, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Bailey of the Gypsum Baptist Church officiating. There was a large attendance of relatives and neighbors present to pay tribute to this long time citizen.

7. LUCY MARGARET⁴ NICHOLS (THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born April 17, 1846 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died October 12, 1929 in Jefferson County, Kentucky. She married THOMAS HOWELL HANCOCK October 26, 1865 at her parents home, Barren County, Kentucky, son of ISAIAH HANCOCK and MARY HOWELL. He was born July 30, 1837 in Allen County, Kentucky, and died September 15, 1931 in Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Notes for LUCY MARGARET NICHOLS:

The following history of Lucy Margaret Hancock was written by her granddaughter, Elizabeth Ewing Fayhee. Ewing's mother, Ada Hancock Arnn, told her these stories.

"Although my grandmother died when I was only seven years old, I have strong memories of her. She was a small, frail woman, maybe 5 ft. tall, with medium gray hair that she wore knotted on top of her head. She was not demanding except on one score - her underwear had to be ironed on the wrong side so it would feel smooth to her skin. She had a favorite, upholstered rocker in which she sat, often watching my brother, our cousin and me play in the backyard. Sometimes she would wave at us, and we would wave back.

"Lucy Margaret Nichols was born April 17, 1846, in a two-story log house in Barren County, Ky. Her home was on the old Glasgow Road. She remembered seeing painted Indians in the woods as she was growing up and being afraid of them.

"She survived a tornado when she was young. She and a sister were asleep in the same bed on the second floor when the twister struck. It took the roof off the house, picked up the bed with the girls in it, and carried them some distance from the house before setting them down, uninjured.

"Stories can stray from the facts as they're passed down. I was always told that Lucy's mother was disinherited for leaving Virginia in order to marry and move to Kentucky. That story appealed to the romantic in me. However, in hindsight, the story doesn't seem to fit with the facts as we know them today, and I think now that it may have been Lucy's grandmother that married and left Virginia for Kentucky. We only knew that Lucy's mother was a Rain (our spelling) from Virginia, but we didn't know her given name.

"Thomas Nichols, whom she married in 1828 in Barren County, was said to have built the first two-story log house in the area, and owned enough land that he gave land to each of his children when they married. That story appears to be at least partially true as county land records indicate that he always owned considerable real estate during his lifetime. The family story says that he was never seen with mud on his boots - a point of pride. He oversaw the work on his land on horseback. He did not believe in slavery and never owned slaves but had hired hands. At the end of every day, there was always a whiskey toddy waiting for him on the fireplace mantle. That was his one drink each day. No one ever saw him tipsy.

"Lucy was 15 years old when the Civil War broke out in 1861. Mother always said that Thomas Nichols' sympathies were with the South, even though he was against slavery. She indicated that the family was divided, some for the South, some for the North. During the four years of fighting, Union and Confederate troops seesawed back and forth through that area of Kentucky, with groups of marauders following on the heels of the armies. The marauders were more feared than either army because they were unprincipled, undisciplined men, thieves.

"When the family knew an army was approaching, the father and all the men on the place would take the horses and oxen and hide in the woods. This was to prevent the men from being forced to help haul the cannons or having their horses - or their persons - commandeered into the army.

"Lucy's mother was an invalid with "female trouble" (she had had nine children in seventeen years and by then was in her early fifties). Knowing that the soldiers would not harm an invalid, she would sit in a rocker by the fireplace. There was a removable floorboard in the living room under which valuables could be hidden. Lucy was said to be a beautiful girl, so there was concern for her safety and that of her sister. There was a space made for them to hide inside the fireplace, with a chink that allowed them to look out and see their mother. I never heard the name of the sister, but it may have been Missouri. The three children born before Lucy were boys, and all of her other sisters were married by then, except for Missouri Nichols, who never married and was still living at home. She would have been 29 years old.

"Not all of the armies were feared. Gen. John Hunt Morgan made repeated sorties through the region; the family felt safe with him. He posted a guard around the house, and only his officers were allowed inside, the rest of the men had to stay a distance from it. A romance developed between Lucy and one of Morgan's lieutenants. Letters were written and received - until one major battle (I never knew which one). After that, when no more was heard from him, it was assumed that he had been killed. In my mother's opinion, Morgan's lieutenant was the real love of Lucy's life. She said that her mother married her father because he was an "educated" man, having finished high school - uncommon in rural Kentucky at that time.

"Red-headed Aunt "Bam" (short for Alabama) figured in another Civil War story my mother told. She was Lucy's sister, about twelve years her senior, 27 and married with her own home when hostilities began. An army came through, and they rounded up all the chickens and small animals to feed the men and forced Aunt "Bam" to bake biscuits all day long (in a wood fired oven or fireplace). She stood and baked for so long that her legs and feet swelled up.

"On another raid, another army stopped at the house on the Glasgow Road where they killed and ate every chicken on the place. After the army departed and all was quiet, an old rooster came out from under the woodpile, flew atop it and crowed!

"After the Civil War, Lucy married Thomas Howell Hancock on Oct. 26, 1865 at her parent's home. She was 19 and he was 29. Thomas made Lucy's gold wedding ring (which their daughter, Eula Hancock Thomas, kept after Lucy died.) He was a circuit riding Methodist minister who also taught school, repaired clocks, compounded medicines, a jack of all trades. He was said to be better at breaking horses than anyone for miles around and always drove a fine horse. Later, his daughter, Ada (who was an excellent teacher in special education), commented that her father was years ahead of his time in his teaching methods. He was very argumentative about theology, especially in the debate over baptism by sprinkling vs. immersion.

"He was so good at compounding medicines that his father-in-law offered to pay his way to medical school in Louisville. But Thomas didn't want to be away from Lucy that long and refused the offer. He later commented that had he come to Louisville, he could have bought land at Fourth and Broadway (where the Heyburn Building and the Brown Hotel now stand) for $1.25 an acre.

"As the babies started coming, one every other year, Thomas seems to have found being out on the circuit more and more compelling. The family joked that he came home only long enough to get Lucy pregnant, then head back out on the road. Lucy was left to rear her family pretty much by herself. In the early years of their marriage, they seemed to have moved around a lot, but eventually they settled in Horse Cave.

"Ada, the last of their eight children, was ten years younger than her nearest sibling, Jethra. Her sisters, Cora and Eula, were 22 and 20 when she was born in 1886, and Lucy was 41. When the birth pains began, the doctor was sent for. Lucy got out of bed when he arrived, fixed him a breakfast of fried chicken, biscuits and gravy, and strawberry shortcake, then went back to bed and had the baby. That was in 1886, in Three Springs, near Possum Trot. The other children were Vontress, Edgar, Euell, and an unnamed baby that died shortly after birth. Oddly, Lucy's children seem not to have been given middle names.

"In time, Lucy thought that she was pregnant again, but as the months passed they realized she had a tumor. Surgery was considered too dangerous; so far years the tumor grew. Ada said that she never remembered sitting on her mother's lap because her mother had no lap. Eula, who had become a skilled seamstress, had to make all her mother's dresses three feet longer in the front than in the back to cover her distended abdomen.

"Around 1903, Jethra decided to go to Louisville Medical School to become a doctor, spurred by the death of his first wife in childbirth. Ada wanted to become a teacher, and Jethra persuaded his mother and Ada to move to Louisville so she could attend the Louisville Normal School - as teacher's training schools were called - and the University of Louisville. Eula and her family also moved.

"Jethra eventually found surgical help for his mother before the tumor could kill her. The best surgeon in Louisville refused her case as being too risky. At that time, the death of a patient during or after surgery was considered a black mark on a surgeon's record. However, a young surgeon was willing to attempt it, and the operation's success made his reputation. He performed the surgery at the original Norton's Hospital on Third Street near Oak, and removed a 60 lb. tumor from a woman who weighed less than 90 lbs. afterward. (The date of the surgery is not known.)

"At that time, the patient's rooms at Norton were heated by fireplaces, and the fires were attended by the nursing staff. On the morning after the surgery, a live coal popped out of the fireplace onto the floor in Lucy's room. Afraid that it would set the room ablaze, she got out of bed, got the tongs and put the coal back on the grate. This exercise caused a great furor that led to the nurse being fired.

"Decades later, my mother, who had been privately skeptical about the weight of the tumor, chanced to meet a nurse who was in the operating room during the surgery. She vividly remembered weighing the mass and wondering how any woman could have lived with so large a tumor for so long. It truly was 60 lbs.

"For the last years of their lives, both grandparents lived with us in our home. Mother often laughed about overhearing her mother berating her father for not voting for Abraham Lincoln. "But I supported him afterwards," was his reply. Grandmother was then in her eighties, and he was in his nineties, but that vote still rankled.

"Old timers in Kentucky had been close observers of nature and had come up with some remarkably accurate sayings. My grandmother's favorite was: "If it rains on the first Sunday of the month, it will rain three Sundays of that month." It does. She often spoke of Linen Britches Winter - the cold snap that came when the men put away their winter woollens and began wearing linen summer suits.

"Every night Grandmother Lucy had to have one teaspoon of whiskey in a glass of water placed by her bed "in case she had a sinking spell." It was rarely touched. This was during Prohibition, but as doctors were allowed to have whiskey "for medicinal purposes," Jethra kept a bottle on hand.

"Grandmother read the newspaper every day and remained mentally sharp until the very end. But Granddaddy became increasingly senile as he neared 95, trying repeatedly to wander off dressed in just his long johns. He was thin, about 5' 6" with gray hair and a neatly trimmed gray beard - a nice looking old man.

"Grandmother died in 1929 after surgery for an intestinal obstruction. Adult family members always wore mourning for a full year after a death, and there was much ado about getting Mother a black dress. At that time, all funerals were held at the home. In the next seven years, there were three more home funerals as we went from a family of seven to one of three. Granddaddy died in 1931, just a few months before my father had a massive stroke. Four years later, cancer took Uncle Jethra. When Mother put aside her black clothes a year after Uncle Jethra died, she never wore black again."

8. WILLIS A.⁴ NICHOLS (THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born September 19, 1849 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died November 04, 1913 in Hart County, Kentucky. He married AMANDA J. PADGETT November 30, 1870 in Barren County, Kentucky, daughter of JAMES PADGETT and CLARASY ?. She was born October 19, 1853 in state of Kentucky, and died May 11, 1919 in Hart County, Kentucky.

Notes for WILLIS A. NICHOLS:

Willis A. Nichols purchased his first tract of land in 1872 when he was 23 years old. He had been married for two years when his father, Thomas Nichols, sold him a 129 acre tract located on Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County for the sum of $400. He paid $200 cash-in-hand with the remainder to be paid on demand with two percent interest starting on the purchase date until final payment was made. (Deed Book 8, page 506, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

On August 13, 1879, Willis A. Nickols and his wife sold to his father, Thomas Nickols, a 14 acre tract located on Fallen Timber Creek for the sum of $50.00 cash-in-hand. (Deed Book 14, page 470, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

The 1880 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky listed Willis A. Nichols, age 30, as Head of Family, his wife, Amanda, age 26, and daughters, Flora V., age 8, Betty M., age 6, and Lucy R., age 1. Also shown as children "taken to raise" are John O. Ellis, age 3, and Samuel E. Hamilton, age 11. (Note: It is believed that the young boy, John O. Ellis, who was taken to be raised by Willis Nichols, was later adopted by him, or at least John took the name of Nichols, because in the 1900 Census for Barren County there appears a John Otis Nichols, age 23, who had married and started his own family. The author believes that John O. Ellis and John Otis Nichols is the same person).

A lease agreement, dated February 27, 1890, was signed between Willis A. Nichols and James J. Keyes of Peru, Indiana in which Willis agreed to lease 109 acres for oil and gas exploration. 10 acres was reserved around buildings where no drilling could take place. (Deed Book 28, page 61, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

The 1900 U.S. Census for Barren County listed W. A. Nichols, age 50, as Head of Family, his wife, A. J., age 46, a son, J. W., age 16, a daughter, A. V. P., age 13, a son, F. M., age 10, a daughter, C. A., age 7 and a daughter, G. H., age 4.

Family oral history says that when Willis Nichols opened a store and post office on the Burkesville Road near Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County, it put a nearby store owned by his older brother, Byrd White Nichols, out of business. Willis's store was located right on the roadside at the intersection of Burkesville Road and Vernon School Road and was more convenient to get to.

9. WILLIAM ALAN⁵ BOWLES (ALABAMA ELIZABETH⁴ NICHOLS, THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born March 08, 1859 in near Mt. Vernon, Barren County, Kentucky, and died February 11, 1944 in Barren County, Kentucky. He married MILLIE ANN MCCOY October 12, 1884 in Barren County, Kentucky. She was born December 31, 1862 in the state of Tennessee, and died December 25, 1909 in Barren County, Kentucky.

Notes for WILLIAM ALAN BOWLES:

Family history says that when Will Allen and Millie Ann lost their baby girl, Nora Olive, when she was only one year old, Ann was never the same and grieved over the loss until her own death in 1909.

“Their spring was located in the side of a bluff about 100 yards from their house, and Will Bowles had to carry water daily up the hill to the house. One day when he returned with water from the spring, he found Ann lying on the floor dead. He never got over God taking his wife and baby from him and became very bitter. After Ann’s death, Will Allen left everything in the house just like it was the day she died - the kindling stacked behind the stove and some of her clothes hanging on the wall.

"He lived alone and let the weeds and bushes grow up around the house. Snakes, lizards and frogs took over the yard and went into the house, and even a snake once got in his bed and lizards crawled on the walls, but he never killed any of them. He said that they ate the flies and bugs.

"When Will Allen was young his occupation was making coffins for people, but after he got older and no one would buy his coffins, he just raised a little garden and kept two or three stands of bees. He enjoyed having children come to visit him, and they enjoyed going to his house because he always gave them hot biscuits, butter and honey. He made his biscuits with a spoon." (Taken from the notes of Ruby Ward, Glasgow, Kentucky)

The 1900 census for District No. 3, Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky listed William A. Bowles, age 41, a farmer and head of the household, and his wife, Millie A., age 37. The census record indicates that the couple had been married for about 15 years, and their only child was no longer living. Their immediate neighbor was his widowed mother, Alabama E. Bowles, age 66.

By 1910, Will Allen Bowles had lost his wife, Millie, and lived alone in a hermit-like existence. The 1910 census for Slick Rock Precinct, Barren County, Kentucky listed Wm. A. Bowles, age 51, a widow and head of the household. His occupation was listed as carpenter.

Mrs. America Jane Siebman & Family,

Dear ones. We received your letter this morning was glad to hear from you all hope little Pern is well by this time, this leaves us well as could be expected considering the circumstances.

Sis, we are a heartbroken family, our home is gone and nothing can build it back to be like home used to be. How awful I do feel when I go to our barn and look across the field to that lonesome house and think for a moment I can see smoke rising from the cooking stove, the next thought is that Ma is not there. Sis, oh what a thought, though we must bear it the best we can, and just think she won't have to suffer and die anymore. She begun throwing up Thursday evening never did swallow a bite of anything any more, took two or three sips of milk Saturday and threw it up in a few minutes, what she threw up Thursday & Friday looked like the yellow of an egg. Saturday and Sunday it was green and smelled awful bad, her bowels and stomach was awfully swollen and that was all she complained of hurting her the four last days, sis it was so hard to stand by and hear her take on so and say you all don't know how I do suffer. She knew everyone of us as long as she could speak. She could talk some after dinner Sunday and died at 3 o'clock.

The last word she said was give me some water. Sunday morning she could talk very well and wanted to be pulled around in the house in a rocker. We thought it wouldn't do to try it, she was so weak and so sick. It was death at work on her then, her feet and hands got cold early in the morning and never got warm any more. We did all we could for her she didn't like (lack) for anything she needed in the way of medicine or anything else. The doctor was there Friday night Saturday and twice Sunday. He did everything he could for her. Dr. Frodge is an awfully good Dr. and does his best for everyone. Sis the wind was blowing from the south Sunday morning she could hear it come against the house, would say how that cold wind does blow on me, Sis it would almost break my heart to think she thought the wind was blowing on her when it was death at work on her. Now I guess you have wondered if she said anything about you coming. She said sometime the week before if you could come while she could see you and talk to you she wanted you to come ___ she didn't want you to make the trip for it, wouldn't be any pleasure to you to come and look at her dead body a few minutes. It would only be trouble to you after she got bad you could not have got the word and got here in time.

Sis Ma looked awfully nice after she was dressed. We didn't put any shoes or gloves on her, I told them I would rather look at her hands than gloves. Chris gave her a black muffler. We had it put around her head. She looked like she was dressed to go to church. She loved flowers. We had a bunch of lilacs put in the coffin. Now Sis you don't know how pretty she looked. She used to tell us that she wanted to be buried in something that she had worn but for the last year she had told ___ and ___ if we wanted something new for her we could get it, said she wanted us to be satisfied and to get anything we wanted. So we got a new suit all ___ flannel skirt her stockings was black worsted. Her coffin was really nice. It had six handles on it. Had a glass over the face. Cost 20 dollars her clothes cost 6.23.

We would have paid more for her things than we did, but she always told us she didn't want to be put away in something nicer than she had always worn, so we thought we would dress her as near like what she had been wearing as we could. She wanted all of us children to have a keepsake out of what she had. She gave me her blue vases that sat on the mantle in the front room, I guess you remember them. She gave Fannie her rocker, had something picked out for every child she had when by herself then when any of us would go to see her she would try to tell what was for all but would forget it and couldn't think what she wanted them to have, I have heard her say lots of times she wanted Charlie Bird to have Zeke's watch. That is what he took for his keepsake. Chris took a preserve stand, John hasn't got anything yet. Will said he was thinking of taking her sulphur water jug. That is something she had used for several months. Will has been going to the well twice a week and sometimes every other day for a long time.

Now we are going to send you and Mollie Bell a keepsake too for she wanted you all to have something to remember her. That is what she would tell us when she was talking to us about these things. When we all get together we will look over her things and select something for you and send it.

She said after all had got a keepsake then sell or divide what was left. to hear her talk about these things made me feel awful bad but nothing to compare with seeing her suffer and die and to know the end had come. Not only our old home broke up but Will's and Charlie Bird. No telling where they will be this time next year. We will soon be a scattered family of children.

(Note: This is all of this letter that has survived. There is no signature but the handwriting is clearly that of Delia's.)

Mrs. A.J. Siebman.

Dear Sister, this is to remind you that you are not forgotten nor your birthday either. Wish so much that I could be with you on that day and half enjoy the good things that I know you will have to eat. I suppose your children will be with you for dinner or do they do like Minnie when my birthday comes around. Stay at home and work like a turk? Well she does come now and then on my birthday. I don't usually fix any more for that day than any other. Hubert and Minnie bought them a farm a little over a year ago. They are working hard to get it paid for. Last year was a dry season and not much made but we thought they did quite well for this old poor country. They made a living and paid seven hundred dollars on their farm. It is a good place or they couldn't have done so well. They will be at home when they get out on it. We have had most winter weather all this week. It rained, snowed, blowed, and did a little of everything yesterday and today is cold and raining. Most of last week was awfully hot. Mercury stood at 94 a part of the week. Woods fields and everything looks like real summer. Gardens don't look very good since this cold spell. Guess you folks are having new vegetables by now. It will be sometime before we have any yet - excuse these rainbow lines haha - Henry Bowles, John Willis's oldest boy married on March the 8th Wills birthday. He married one of uncle Merril Bailey's Granddaughter Lavada Young. Allie Dee has been married over a year he and his wife have a daughter born sometime in March. She was Ola Spencer. Pauline Bowles married Elmer Cocks and of course you knew May married Clem Bailey several years ago. They have 3 children.

Leslie is married and living in Okla City where he has been for fifteen years. I suppose I have told you before now that he was married. They were home three years ago last Fall. We like her fine. Why don't you or some of your folks go to see them. It isn't far - Fannie had all of her teeth pulled Saturday before Easter. She is getting along fine. She went to an Easter egg hunt the next day. I know she must have felt lots better than I did when I had mine taken out. Hers wasn't decayed near like mine was. Her upper front teeth were sound except for one tiny place. I never would have had them pulled. False teeth are better than bad teeth but sound natural ones are much better than false ones. She would have gotten used to her plate much easier if she had kept her front ones. She has a much better living now than she used to. We all like him much better than we thought at first we would. He is good to her but such a cake puff. I haven't seen Will for a few days but he was well when I heard last. He had a cold almost all winter but is over that now. So many had "flu" but not near so many deaths as was the year after the war closed. Uncle Frosty Lee Nichols is still living and is living by himself at his old home. He is contrary and hard to get along with and when his last wife died he wanted to live with Ira and Andy. They told him that wouldn't suit and wanted Dudlie and his folks to move in with him. He wouldn't agree with that and said he could live by himself. I think the boys did him wrong even if he is contrary. He is their father and old and has to be taken care of or ought to be. I ask to see him three weeks ago. He is a pretty good house keeper for an old man. He is looking bad and I don't think he will live much longer. He is 87 years old - Uncle Tom Nichols is living alone too at his old home in Kansas. How many grandchildren do you have now? Thelma Buckley is the only one we have and we haven't seen her for six years. Willie Ann Shanks is living in Eureka, Kansas. Her last husband is a man by the name of Allen. She has been married three times and all her husbands are living. She only has one child and he is married and has a baby now. Just think we are great great aunts. We had lost trace of her until about 18 or 20 months ago when there came a tale that Willie Ann's husband had been hung and we wrote and found her and so we found that was untrue and they are at home working for an oil company - Will gets letters from her. I had a letter from Mollie Belle a few weeks ago. They have had a pretty hard time this winter with flu and chicken pox. They are all better. I had a letter from Nora, Chris's wife. She said he was bothered by rheumatism a whole lot. She said their boy Roy was 21 years old

(Note: The remainder of the above letter is also missing.)

Mrs. America Siebman,

Dear Sis I very well remember the 4th is your birthday. This is to show you that you are not forgotten. Wish I could be with you on that day. eat and think of me. I guess you will have new beans beets onions and every kind of garden stuff. We don't have but little planted as the weather has been so cold all the time. We surly will have some pretty weather in May. It began snowing in October and it has snowed in every month since. So you see we have had a long winter. What are you doing this spring? I wouldn't think you had much of anything to do only come to see us all. Your children are married and left you alone. So now set a time and write us to meet you at the Glasgow depot. Leslie and Lottie are coming home sometime this summer and I'm trying to get Katie Maud in the notion too. Also asking Mollie Belle to come but she has so many children to put in school the first of September that she thinks its a bad chance for her. There is nothing on hand that makes me want you all to come. Only that I want to see you and I can't go every place myself. I sure would like to see you and your entire family all together. Will wrote Evelyn that it would be like being at a circus show. He has been complaining with one of his knees for some time. It must be rheumatism. He has to limp some days. Tell Lou that I want her to send Evelyn to live with me. I know that from the way she writes that she is the one I want. Will brings her letters down for me to read. Uncle Lee Nichols is in very poor health. He had something like the Flu along in the winter. seemed to get over that but don't have any mind scarcely. he can set up and walk about the house some, he is nearly blind too. He is a great trouble. Dudley and his family are living with him. They have three girls and one boy. The boy don't have a very strong mind and is 13 years old. He is the baby. Aunt Lucy Handcock and Uncle Lee & Uncle Tom are all that are now living of the family. I sure would like to see Aunt Lucy. I had a long letter from Chris some time back. The first I had got from him in a long time. His wife writes every now and then. Fannie and Mr. Pitcock were here a few weeks ago. she hadn't been here for some time on account of so much bad winter weather and I wasn't able to go see her as I took the flu last August and wasn't well all winter and not real strong yet but able to work. Hubert & Minnie are well and working hard, too hard I think. I suppose John Willis and family are well and Charlie Bird and Mollie too. Ma's old home wouldn't look one bit natural to you. it don't to me. Suppose you know Charlie Bird bought Grand pap Nichols old place and had moved to it and has a man on Ma's place. The yard fence is all gone and the cedar trees that were in the yard are gone and they cultivate right up close to the house in front and towards the spring. The spring don't even look natural. I feel bad when I am there. The timber that was above the spring is all gone except for a tree or two. Does Victor think now if there is a fright one in the pile that is his? It don't seem like he is big enough to be married.

Suppose I had better quit for now. Write to me sometime. I think you could and you don't know how glad I'd be to get it. Tell all the children hello for me and that I'd like to see them all. I'll quit wishing you many more birthdays. I remain your loving sister.

Notes for CHARLES PERKINS BAILEY:

Charles Perkins Bailey was married three times, and all of his wives were 1st cousins, each one descended from a different child of John Nichols. His first wife was Lucy Nichols, a granddaughter of Elias Lacy Nichols. Wife No. 2 was Polly Ward, a granddaughter of Elizabeth (Nichols) Ward. His last wife, Cordelia, was a granddaughter of Thomas Nichols.

In a deed made and entered into on April 16, 1873, John G. Bailey sold to his son, Charles P. Bailey, a tract of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County containing 38 1/2 acres for the sum of $385 of which $100 was paid cash-in-hand, with $200 payable in 12 months with interest of 10%, and $85 to be paid in two years. (Deed Book 9, page 611, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

On February 15, 1876, John G. Bailey and his wife, Elizabeth, and son, Charles P. Bailey, all conveyed to B. F. Trahie, two tracts of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County, for the sum of $600 cash-in-hand. One tract contained 140 acres, and the second tract contained 14 acres. Of said two tracts of land, John G. Bailey had previously conveyed by deed to his son, C. P. Bailey, a boundary containing 38 and 1/2 acres, and hence C. P. Bailey joined in this deed and sale to Trahie. (Deed Book 11, page 92.)

The 1880 U.S. Census for Glasgow Junction, Barren County, Kentucky listed Charles P. Bailey, age 30, a farmer and Head of the Household, his wife, Polly Ann, age 40, keeping house, and a daughter, Katy M., age 2.

On January 17, 1882, a tract of land located in Barren County containing 35 and 3/4 acres was sold at public auction by order of the Barren County Court. The purchaser was G. W. Rowland for the sum of $50 cash. In a deed dated April 4, 1883, the land was conveyed to C. P. Bailey, assignee of the said Rowland. (Deed Book 18, page 522, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

In a deed made on January 1, 1885, Charles P. Bailey and his wife, P. A. Bailey, sold to B. C. Bowles a certain tract of land located in Barren County containing 35 and 3/4 acres for the sum of $175, of which $50 was paid cash-in-hand, with the remaining $125 to be paid as follows, $50 payable in 12 months and $75 payable in 24 months, for which a promissory note has been issued. (Deed Book 20, page 198)

In a deed made and dated on August 16, 1887, David B. Minyard and his wife, Josephine, sold to Charles P. Bailey a certain parcel of land lying in Barren County containing 56 and 1/4 acres for the sum of $300, of which $93.50 was paid in cash, and for the remaining $206.50 obligation, Charles P. Bailey agreed to assume the payment on a $200 note in the hands of L. W. Jones executed on January 31, 1887. (Deed Book 23, page 289, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

After almost nine years of marriage, Charles Bailey's second wife, Polly, died on August 9, 1885. Approximately one year later, on September 12, 1886, Charles married for the third time to Delia Bowles, and by the 1900 census, they had two children of their own. The 1900 census for District 3, Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky lists Charles P. Bailey, age 50, head of the family and a blacksmith, his wife, Cordelia E., age 32, a daughter, Katie M., age 22, a school teacher, a son, Tipton L., age 12, and a daughter, Minnie A., age 9. The couple had been married for 14 years, and both of their children together were still living.

Ten years later, Charles's son, Tipton, now age 22, was out on his own, but his two daughters still resided at home. Also living in the home was his father, John C. Bailey, his mother having died in November of 1900. The 1910 census for Slick Rock Precinct, Barren County, Kentucky listed Chas. P. Bailey, age 60, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Cordelia, age 42, a daughter, Katie M., age 31, a school teacher, a daughter, Minnie A., age 19, and his father, John Bailey, age 83, a widower.

The 1920 census for Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky listed Charles P. Bailey, age 70, a farmer and head of the family, and his wife, Cordelia, age 52. They owned their own place free and clear of any mortgage.

Charles P. Bailey died on November 27, 1938, outliving his third wife, Cordelia, by eight years. He is buried in the Bowles family cemetery in Barren County along with many of his relatives, including his parents and two of his wives, Polly and Delia. Died: At her home near Gove City, Gove C., Kan., Jan. 21, 1889, Mrs. Lucy B. Coons, daughter of J. L. and M. V. Tolle of the vicinity of Roxbury.

The subject of this notice was born in Barren Co., Kentucky on July 29, 1865, but emigrated with her parents to McPherson Co., Kan., where she was married to H. M. Coons Aug. 12, 1882. A little more than a week since she fell sustaining internal injuries which proved fatal. This reminds us that the grim visage of the death angel is ever abroad in our land ready to snap asunder the brittle thread of life where we least expect. This last victim was stricken down just in the prime of life, while yet the bloom of youth was fresh on her cheeks. The deceased leaves a husband and three small children to mourn her untimely death.

All we can say to the bereaved friends is to put their trust in Him who has promised to be a father to the fatherless and remember that.

Obituary for CLEM NICHOLS

Mr. Clem Nichols, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nichols, died at his home Friday, Jan. 7, about 12 o'clock with pneumonia. He was 19 years, 8 months and eleven days old. He leaves a father and mother and two sisters, Misses Ollie and Sallie Nichols, and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. The glories of this earth are unnoticed by them because the death angel has appeared in their home and claimed for its own their only son. Their visions are o'ercast, with the gloom of sorrow and every sound that strikes their ears has in it a cadence of despair. This world seems cheerless to them now, but they are looking for a brighter farther on. That they will some sweet day meet their darling Clem, on that bright Eternal Shore, where there is no more sorrow or pain. There only consolation is that their hearts idol has heard the words from the Father's lips, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou unto the joys of the Lord." The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground near Mt. Vernon.

Earth has lost its look of gladness, Heaven seems to them more bright,
Since the spirit of their dear one, Took his happy homeward flight.
And they long to cross that river, Long to rest upon that shore,
There to see, and know, and love them, With the Savior evermore.

OLSEN August 23, 1905 in state of Iowa. She was born May 23, 1884 near Newell, Iowa, and died abt. 1985 in the state of Iowa.

Notes for ALLIE YOUNG NICHOLS:

The 1900 U.S. Census for Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, Kansas listed A. Y. Nichols, age 21, a farm laborer, boarding with the Tolle family. His older brother, James T. Nichols, age 37, was also in McPherson County, Kansas during the 1900 census boarding with the Rick Burch family. The brothers had traveled out to Kansas from Barren County, Kentucky to visit their relatives.

The 1910 census for Providence Township, Buena Vista County, Iowa, listed Allie Y. Nichols, age 31, a farmer and head of the household, his wife, Bessie E., age 25, and a daughter, Ina M., age 1 year. The couple had been married for approximately four years and had only the one child.

Friday the 13th is 100th Birthday of A. Y. Nichols

A. Y. Nichols of Storm Lake, sometimes known as Al or Allie, but more often than not, A. Y., is celebrating his 100th birthday, Friday, Oct. 13. "A. Y." has been promised a special birthday cake -- a white cake this time -- by his daughter, Ina Hansen of Storm Lake and granddaughter, Beverly Dickerson of Niwot, Colo.

"I've always been quite fond of cake -- always had a sweet tooth," says A. Y. as he continues, "I've probably eaten more sweets than anybody." A "tinge" of the Kentucky background is evident as A. Y. speaks.

He was born in Glasgow, Ky., and spent his youth there. He was the youngest of six brothers and came to Iowa looking for work around 1900.

A. Y. also discovered his bride, Betty Olsen of Newell, a country school teacher in Pocahontas. They were married August 23, 1905 and farmed near Sulphur Springs until their retirement to Storm Lake in 1943.

A. Y. and Bessie, 94, observed their 73rd anniversary Aug. 23. Their daughter, Ina, joined them for an anniversary dinner. The couple says they may celebrate a bit more when they reach their 75th anniversary in a couple of years.

A. Y. keeps busy as usual with his garden and grape arbor. "Oh, my yes! It's entirely too big!" says A.Y. of his 72 by 36 ft. garden. "We'll cut it down next year -- we'll see to that" chimes in Bessie. The couple enjoys television and A. Y.'s big love is baseball games.

Coming to celebrate A. Y.'s 100th birthday with him will be daughter, Ina and her husband, Herbert Hansen of Storm Lake; granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dickerson of Niwot, Colo., and grandsons, Robert, 27, Steven, 24, of Colorado. Richard, 21, is in college and unable to attend.

Notes for BESSIE E. OLSEN:

Bessie Nichols, 101 Years Young

Her life is more than just a memory album of pictures. Thursday, May 23, Bessie Nichols will mark another special occasion in her life. She will celebrate her 101st birthday at Methodist Manor.

Born in 1884, on a farm near Newell, her life ambition was to become a teacher. So at age 16, she packed her bags and ran away from home to become a teacher. She worked her way through school and started teaching in a Pocahontas country school. She met her husband, Kentucky native Allie Young Nichols, and later married him in 1905. The couple farmed north of Sulphur Springs for 35 years before moving to Storm Lake. Bessie and her husband, who she fondly calls A. Y., were married for almost 75 years before he died in 1980 at age 101.

Bessie has made her home at Methodist Manor for more than four years and enjoys the people, nurses and staff at the home.

Helping her celebrate her birthday will be her daughter, Mrs. Herbert (Ina) Hansen of Storm Lake, granddaughter, Mrs. O. D. (Beverly) Neuton of Colorado and a few Manor residents. Bessie says she also has three great-grandsons, all of whom are over six feet tall.

Child of ALLIE NICHOLS and BESSIE OLSEN is:

Edd Nichols and his brother, Hayden S. Nichols, participated in the Oklahoma Land Rush. The 1900 census for Enid, Garfield County, Oklahoma listed Ed L. Nichols, age 35, single.

The 1910 U.S. Census for Ward 5, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma listed E. L. Nichols, age 45, the proprietor of a grocery and head of the household, his wife, Nola, age 22, and a son, Carl, age 1 year old. The couple had been married for three years, and their only child was still living.

The 1920 census for Ward 3, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma listed Edwin L. Nichols, age 54, a grocer and head of the household, his wife, Nola, age 32, and a son, Carl, age 11 years old. The couple owned their own home which was free and clear of a mortgage.

24. HAYDEN S.⁵ NICHOLS (BYRD WHITE⁴, THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born March 11, 1867 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died March 25, 1963 in Delta, Delta County, Colorado. He married LUCRETIA MAY "LULU" MCVEY October 19, 1898 in Lamar, Prowers County, Colorado, daughter of CHARLES MCVEY and NANCY JOHNSON. She was born May 31, 1878 in Roxbury, McPherson County, Kansas, and died December 14, 1968 in Delta, Delta County, Colorado.

Notes for HAYDEN S. NICHOLS:

Hayden Nichols added the middle initial "S" to his name. He was called "Scotty" as a boy, and since he was never given a middle name at birth, when he grew older he claimed that Scott was his middle name, hence the "S" for his initial.

Hayden and his brother, Edd Nichols, participated in the Oklahoma Land Rush.

Hayden worked for his aunt and uncle, Frank and Mary Elizabeth Burch, while he lived in Roxbury, Kansas. Mary Elizabeth Burch was Cynthia Ann Tolle's sister. He met his future wife, Lucretia May McVey, while working on their farm. She was working in the house while he was working in the fields. Colorado marriage records show that H. S. Nichols, age 30, county of Prowers, married Lucretia McVey, age 20, city of Lamar. The marriage was performed by B. E. Jacobs. (Information from Evelyn R. Hammett, Little Rock, Arkansas.)

Hayden and Lucretia lived in Kansas for two years after their marriage. The 1900 census for Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, Kansas listed H. S. Nichols, age 33, head of the household and a farmer, and his wife, L. M., age 22. The couple had been married for one year. They had had one child who was no longer living. Also boarding in the home was I. A. Nichols, age 25, a farmer. (Note: Evelyn Hammett of Little Rock, Arkansas, a descendant of Hayden Nichols, believes that the I. A. Nichols listed in the census was really Ishmael Artemus Burch, the son of Frank and Mary Elizabeth Burch. Both Hayden and Lucretia had worked for the Burch's before they were married.)

They moved to the Uncompahgre Valley of Colorado in 1905, and then to the Montrose, Colorado area where Hayden continued farming. When he retired from farming, he and Lucretia moved to Delta, Colorado. He died in Delta Memorial Hospital due to age and pneumonia and was buried in Delta Municipal Cemetery.

The 1910 census for Precinct No. 8, Montrose County, Colorado listed Hayden S. Nichols, age 43, head of the family and a farmer, his wife, Lucretia, age 31, a son, Lester, age 9, a son, Floyd, age 6, a daughter, Vera, age 4, a daughter, Mildred, age 3, and a son, Clifford, age 1 year and 4 months. The couple had been married for 11 years, and they owned their own farm.

The 1920 census for Precinct No. 13, Montrose County, Colorado listed Hayden S. Nichols, age 52, head of the household, his wife, Lucretia M., age 41, a son, Lester, age 18, a son, Floyd A., age 16, a daughter, Vera M., age 14, a daughter, Mildred L., age 12, a son, Clifford E., age 10, a daughter, Elanor G., age 8, a son, Hayden E., age 6, a son, Donald G., age 5, a daughter, Thelma L., age 3, and a daughter, Leora, age 1.

The following "Memories of Hayden S. Nichols," was written by his granddaughter, Evelyn Hammett of Little Rock, Arkansas:

"I don't know a whole lot about my grandfather's early years. I have just picked up bits and pieces here and there. Hayden left Kentucky when he was about 18 or 19 years old, in 1888. With his brother, Ed, he participated in the first Oklahoma Run in 1888. Later, his brother settled in Oklahoma, but Hayden went to Roxbury, Kansas where his uncle Frank (Robert Franklin Burch) and his wife, Mary Elizabeth (Tolle) lived. Frank and Mary had moved to Roxbury on October 1, 1870.

"The McVey family moved to Roxbury, Kansas before 1880, so the two families - Burch's and McVey's - knew each other working farms in the same area. The McVey family moved to Lamar, Colorado in 1888. Several years later, Mary Elizabeth Burch got sick and they needed someone to help take care of her and the household, so they contacted the McVey family to see if their daughter, Lulu, could come and help. Lulu went to live with the Burch family taking care of the household and Mary Elizabeth Burch. At this time, Hayden S. Nichols was helping work the farm for his uncle, Frank Burch. That is how Hayden and Lulu met. After Mary Elizabeth got better, Lulu went back to Colorado to her parent's home, but it was a long distance between Lamar, Colorado and Roxbury, Kansas. The result was that Hayden asked Lulu to marry him, and she accepted.

"Hayden S. Nichols and Lucretia May "Lulu" McVey were married on October 19, 1898 at the McVey home in Lamar, Colorado. They went back to Roxbury, Kansas where Hayden was working for his uncle, and Bessie Olive was born there on August 2, 1899 and died April 13, 1900. They say that she was buried in Roxbury cemetery, but no one has ever been able to locate the grave. The records do not indicate that a Bessie Olive Nichols was born there either, so we think probably that she was just buried on the farm. After Bessie's death in 1901, they moved to Lamar, Colorado near Lulu's parents. Her parents were quite prominent people in that area and owned a good bit of property.

"Hayden and Lulu lived in Lamar where Lester G. was born on March 26, 1901 and Floyd Allison was born on May 13, 1903. In 1905, they moved to the Uncompahgre Valley on Colorado's western slope near Montrose, Colorado. It was here that their next two children were born, Vera May on August 30, 1905, and Mildred Lucille on February 4, 1907. Then they moved to the Olathe area between Montrose and Delta, Colorado, where the remaining six children were born beginning with Clifford Eugene on December 29, 1909, followed by Eleanor Gladys in 1911, Hayden Edwin in 1913, Donald Groves in 1914, Thelma Leota in 1916 and Leora in 1918.

"Hayden and his children got together on many occasions as they all lived within about 60 miles of each other. We mainly got together not on such holidays as Thanksgiving and Christmas, but for birthdays, 4th of July, Memorial Day or Labor Day or just some weekend. As a young child, I spent many summers with my grandparents. Lester G. Nichols helped his father on the farm, and they had a son, Bobby, who was only nine months younger than I was, so we had a lot of fun together, but could also get into trouble at times.

"One time we climbed the hay stacker and then had to get grandpa to help us get down. That was the only time that I can remember my grandfather spanking me. He sure was scared we were going to get hurt before he could get us down. He would let us ride the harrow as he worked the fields, help milk the cows, feed the chickens, gather the eggs, play in the hay in the barn and many other things. We had our chores to do, but then we could play. They had a big dirt cellar with half of it underground to keep the food. During the Depression that cellar with its fruit, vegetables, and potatoes helped give us something to eat. He kept it arranged so he knew exactly where everything was.

"The farmhouse had two bedrooms with a porch that had been enclosed with some kind of covering over the screens to make a bedroom for the boys. One bedroom had been added on and had a tin roof. The bedrooms were never heated, so Grandma kept a lot of comforters to help keep us warm. She also would heat the flat irons, wrap them in a towel and put them in the bed to warm it up for us before we got in. We were not allowed in the front parlor except for special occasions. In that room was a beautiful pump organ that I loved to play or hear some of the family play.

"I helped to separate the milk and cream that was picked up by a company and sold in town. The kitchen was large with a big oblong table in it and an old iron cook stove. Grandma could make the best meals. It seemed like I peeled enough potatoes for the army, but with that many children, she needed to cook a lot of food. Sometimes the field hands ate there too.

"Christmas because of the large number of people, and most of us were on the poor side, we drew names. The adults drew names among themselves while the children drew names among themselves. This way we got one gift and we gave one gift, which were not expensive and usually something that we all needed. I remember, however, that Grandma Nichols always had something for each of her grandchildren up until just before she died. It might be a pair of sox, a hankie, or a pair of pillowcases that she had embroidered, something she had made. She would work all year getting them made for Christmas.

"After I married, they had a fire at the farm and lost most everything they had. They sold all the equipment, land, everything, and moved into town, Delta, Colorado. Many of the things I have that belonged to Grandma and Grandpa I had already been given or they are things accumulated after the fire. Whenever I would come back to Colorado for a visit, all I had to do was knock on the door, tell them to get their coats and lets go to my folks in Grand Junction for a visit. After a few days, I would take them home.

"One time when Grandpa was up in his 80's, we couldn't find him. A few hours later here came a neighbor who had found him out on the highway. He had walked out to the farm, which was a good ten to fifteen miles from town. He was on his way home when the neighbor saw him and offered him a ride home. He never missed church unless he was sick and made sure his family went too. The twinkle in his eye showed his love for others. He loved to play checkers and other games at the pool hall after he retired from the farm. All of the old farmers gathered there each day for a good time, so you always knew where to find him if he forgot it was lunch or supper time.

"He never got to go back to Kentucky to see any of his family. One year my parents made arrangements to call Kentucky and got his sisters, Lucy Ann, and I think Mollie (Mary Susan) on the phone so he could talk to them. He stood there and cried as he talked. This was something I had never seen him do before. They were tears of joy, and I think we were all crying before it was over.

"My mother, and later myself, corresponded with Lucy Ann Ward for several years. It was she who sent me a lot of information, and Ronnie got in touch with me from finding my name in her papers. My parents went through Kentucky a couple of times and stopped in Glasgow to see the Nichols families there. I was one of two that did not get back for the funeral for either of my grandparents, and even though it has been a long time now, I still miss them and being able to cuddle up in their lap for a lot of love and a story or two."

Hayden S. Nichols passed away at 11:00 a.m., March 25, 1963 at Delta Memorial Hospital in Delta, Colorado at the age of 96 years and 14 days. All ten of his children were in attendance at the funeral. His wife, Lulu, lived for five more years and passed away on December 14, 1968 at the age of 90. Both are buried in Delta, Colorado.

Even in her later years, she always managed to make things for all of her many grandchildren - pillowcases, aprons, hankies - just something for them from her." (from Evelyn R. 25. LUCY ANN⁵ NICHOLS (BYRD WHITE⁴, THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born February 12, 1872 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died October 17, 1980 in Barren County, Kentucky. She married W. SEWELL WARD December 08, 1897 in at the home of her father, Byrd Nichols, Barren County, Kentucky, son of DECRILLION WARD and HANNAH PICKERING. He was born February 07, 1873 in Metcalfe County, Kentucky, and died October 27, 1964 in Barren County, Kentucky.

Notes for LUCY ANN NICHOLS:

"When Lucy Ann Nichols was 10 or 12 years old, her favorite pastime was standing by the fence on the lower side of her yard and looking down at the travelers by the spring. She would stand and watch and listen for hours. Travelers from Burkesville, Willow Shade, and other towns in the surrounding counties would drive their stock (hogs, cattle, sheep and turkeys) to market at Glasgow. Since they couldn't make the trip over bad, muddy roads in one day, they often camped overnight at Elbow Springs. The spring was located on private property, which was owned by her grandfather, Thomas Nichols, but it was always open for use by the public.

"The ground for campers was between one-third and one-half acre in size and was completely covered with gravel from the branch that leisurely flowed along the southwest side of the grounds. Sometimes travelers would arrive in covered wagons, and while tying up and feeding their team, they would holler back and forth to each other and use rough language. If the travelers had a covered wagon, they slept in that, but if the weather permitted, they would spread a blanket on the ground and sleep outside under the sky.

"When Lucy was a child, the building over the spring was made of logs and had a gourd for people to use as a dipper. It always hung on the wall. There was a foot-log on the lower side of the ground behind the spring-house where walkers could cross the branch to the store that was owned by Nichols and son. The foot-log was high and narrow. The Nichols children had to cross the log in order to get water from the spring. They had a long stick upon which they hung their buckets to carry water back to the house. Sometimes they spilled the water (probably playing) and had to go back for more." (Family history from Ruby Ward based upon interviews with her mother, Lucy Nichols Ward.)

"Aunt Lucy" lived to be 108 years, 9 months and a few days old. When Barren County celebrated its Centennial in 1976, Lucy Ward was the oldest citizen in the county and was chosen to be in the parade. She was honored at a breakfast and made a "Kentucky Colonel."

"MISS LUCY" OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Lucy Ward celebrated her 105th birthday Saturday, February 12, and although she is recuperating from a broken hip it was a merry occasion.

"Miss Lucy" as she is most usually called sustained a broken hip in a fall at her home last November. At the present time she is convalescing at a local nursing home and her family joined her there for the celebration.

However "Miss Lucy" is expected to return in the near future to her own home which she shares with one of her daughters. Her home located on Route 4 is on farmland where she was born in 1872.

Last year at age 104 according to one of her daughters "Miss Lucy" had occasion to visit the nursing home where she is now recuperating and remarked, "When I get old, I hope I'll have a good place to stay."

I was reminded recently that several years ago when "Miss Lucy" was only 99 or 100 years of age I asked her to what she contributed her longevity. She replied, "Minding my own business."

This year when I visited her all of her children with the exception of one had arrived for the birthday observance. "Miss Lucy" is still very alert and prompted by her son Bill, she sang two verses of "Grandfather's Clock" and never missed a word.

She is the mother of seven children, Ruby Ward, Otto Ward, Chester Ward, Bill Ward, Mrs. E.P. Elbert, all of Glasgow, Mrs. Christine Nordstrom, San Antonio, Texas and Mrs. Gladys Palmore, St. Petersburg, Florida.

"Miss Lucy" is the widow of W. Sewell Ward who died in 1964.

Notes for W. SEWELL WARD:

According to family history, W. Sewell Ward was never given a middle name, so when he grew older he elected to use the initial "W" to represent his first name, even though it really had no meaning.

In a deed made on November 14, 1902, D. C. Ward and his wife, Alma Ward, sold to their son, W. S. Ward, a tract of land located on Fallen Timber Creek containing 29 1/4 acres for the sum of $234, of which two notes were issued, one for $150 and the other for $84, each note drawing 6% interest and both secured by a lien on the land being sold. (Deed Book 50, page 572, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

Living immediately next door was Alma Ward, age 77, a widow and Sewell Ward's mother. The Wards owned their farm free of a mortgage.

The 1930 census for Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky listed W. S. Ward, age 57, a farmer and head, his wife, Lucy, age 58, a son, L. C., age 18, and a daughter, Gladys, age 16. Living in the house next door was Sewell Ward's mother, Alma Ward, age 88, a widow.

- i. BRUCE ORVILLE⁶ WARD, b. September 28, 1898, Barren County, Kentucky; d. December 18, 1926, near Detroit, Michigan.

Notes for BRUCE ORVILLE WARD:

Bruce Ward and his friend, Archie Peden, were killed in a car - train accident. He had a high school education and one semester of business college. He worked for the Ford Motor Company in Detroit, Michigan. Bruce Ward was never married.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT

Clouds of sadness throw a shadow upon our pathway and we are made to submit to God's will though we cannot understand why He deals with us in such a mysterious way. Face to face we will meet our God, then all mysteries will be revealed and we will understand that in all things His way was best.

One of the darkest clouds that has cast a shadow in the lives of loved ones and friends was when Bruce Ward and Archie Peden were hurled into eternity without a moment's warning.

Two strong young men in the bloom of youth just beginning to realize that life was sweet and worthwhile had to be taken from loved ones leaving them broken-hearted but God knows best and for some reason Bruce and Archie were crushed to death by a flyer which made its way onward leaving blood stained and mangled bodies to be taken care of by those that found them first.

Our time on earth can be compared to the west bound train that so rapidly makes its way from one station to another. Time is fleeting and our last station at any moment may be reached just as Archie and Bruce in an instant reached theirs. Let us grasp every opportunity God has so graciously blessed us with and face Him with a record we will not be ashamed to face.

Last Saturday morning, December 18 at 1:30, Bruce and Archie started for home to spend the Holidays with relatives. Just out of the city limits a west bound train was making its way to the Telegraph and Ecorse Crossing, the boys just getting to the crossing in time to be hurled to their death.

It was a heart-breaking sight to see their strong bodies mangled and crushed with a car that was completely demolished. Bruce's body was found under the car, Archie was thrown about ten feet from the car. William, a brother, was thrown thirty feet from the car, badly injured but will recover.

We realize that death must come in the morning of life, to some at noon of life and to the old in the evening. At noon time while the bloom of youth so brilliantly throws its rays upon bright and youthful lives here we must weep with loved ones who must say good bye while viewing the strong bodies of those whose ray of light is gone out and their spirits have flown to God who gave them life. So it was with Bruce and Archie.

Their bodies were brought to Archie's brother's cold in death, enclosed in caskets, to stay with us until loved ones could go with their bodies to Kentucky where grief-stricken mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters met to view the remains the last time on earth.

Perhaps their horrible deaths come to us as a warning to lead others to God and to live closer to Him. We deeply sympathize with loved ones and can only commend them to God who alone can comfort in such dark hours. One day God will reveal all mysteries; we will meet the boys again and then understand.

According to family oral history, Birdie Hancock died while giving birth to their second child on March 16, 1902 along with the baby. She was buried in the Hiseville Cemetery. After her death, Vontress traveled to Texas with his infant daughter and looked up the Bridgewater family, who were from Green County, Kentucky and had moved to Texas a few years earlier. 38. JETHRA⁵ HANCOCK (LUCY MARGARET⁴ NICHOLS, THOMAS³, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born July 07, 1875 in Burkesville, Cumberland County, Kentucky, and died October 04, 1935 in at his home at Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky. He married (1) LORA DURHAM abt. 1900. She was born in Green County, Kentucky, and died December 1901 in Green County, Kentucky. He married (2) LILY M. PRYOR November 29, 1919 in Jefferson County, Kentucky, daughter of LILY H. PRYOR. She was born abt. 1893 in the state of Kentucky, and died February 19, 1983 in Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Notes for JETHRA HANCOCK:

Jethra Hancock was known as "Bob" to his family and friends. He married Lora Durham probably in Green County, Kentucky about 1900. She died during the birth of their first child in December 1901 in Green County. Both mother and baby are buried in the Greensburg Cemetery in Green County. Jethra Hancock always wanted to be a doctor, and after the death of his wife he attended medical school at the University of Louisville, where he graduated in 1907. While attending medical school he had to get up every morning at 5 o'clock in order to fire the furnace, a job he held in order to pay for part of his tuition. Upon finishing school, his first doctor's office was located in Louisville at the corner of Second and Chestnut Streets near the old medical school. Jethra married for the second time on November 29, 1919 in Jefferson County to Lily Mae Hall Pryor, and they had one child, James Pryor Hancock, born on October 28, 1922. The couple separated about 1925 but never divorced. After his separation from Lily, Jethra moved in with his sister, Ada Arnn, and her family, who lived on Eastern Parkway in Louisville, where he continued to live until his death in 1935.

Jethra Hancock was a veteran of World War I and served in Panama during the war fighting the yellow fever epidemic among U.S. troops. Later in his career, he was in charge of the Department of Infectious Diseases for the State of Kentucky and traveled throughout the state in that capacity. (Personal communication from Ewing (Arnn) Fahey, Louisville, Kentucky)

The 1910 census for the 33rd precinct, Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky listed Jethra Hancock, age 34, head of the household, widowed, a medical physician, his father, Thomas H. Hancock, age 74, his mother, Lucy M. Hancock, age 57, and his sister, Ada, age 24, single. Also living in the home were Thomas Shreve, age 10, a nephew, and Harry L. Westick, age 50, a lodger. His home was located on West Chestnut Street.

The following excerpt was taken from the HISTORY OF KENTUCKY AND KENTUCKIANS, by E. Polk Johnson, three volumes, Lewis Publishing Co., New York and Chicago, 1912. Vol. III, pp. 1195-96.

"JETHRA HANCOCK, M.D. -- Among the native sons who have been the architects of their own fortunes and have won both fame and fortune may be mentioned Dr. Jethra Hancock, physician of Louisville. Dr. Hancock was born in Birchville (sic), Kentucky, on the 7th of July, 1875, the son of the Rev. Thomas Howell Hancock. The family traces its genealogy back to the Hancocks of Virginia. Rev. Thomas H. Hancock was born in Warren County, Kentucky, in 1834, the son of Isaac (sic) Hancock, a native of Warren County, Kentucky, and for fifty years was an evangelist of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in eastern Kentucky. At the present time he is conducting a training school in Wayne County, Kentucky, which he founded and which is in line with his evangelistic work, in which he is still active. He is a pioneer in evangelical work in Kentucky, is a very devout Christian and has devoted his life to the church. He married Lucy Margaret Nichols, who was born in Elbow (also known as Nichols) Spring, twelve miles from Glasgow in Barren County, the daughter of Thomas Nichols, who was a native of Kentucky, of Virginia parentage.

"To Rev. Thomas H. Hancock and wife seven children were born, as follows: Cora, who married R. C. Larimore and resides in Hart County, Kentucky; Ula married L. C. Thomas and resides in Hart County, Kentucky; Vontress married Betty Means, who is now deceased, and he lives in Texas, engaged in the business of farming; Edgar married Nannie Larimore and resides in Hart County, Kentucky; Jethra is our subject; Uel is engaged in newspaper work in New York City; and Ada is unmarried, a teacher in the Louisville Public Schools.

"Dr. Hancock was reared on the farm and secured his education under Professor C. W. Matthews at Munfordville and Greensburg, Kentucky. Professor Matthews is now living in retirement in Louisville. He is one of the best known educators in Kentucky, and many of the leading and most successful men of Louisville in all lines of business and the professions of today were his pupils. At the age of sixteen years Dr. Hancock went to work on the farm, working during the summers and attending school in the winter time, and later teaching. By the time he was twenty years old he owned a good farm, which he had purchased with his earnings and which he still owns, and this is a record that very few young men can claim. He was graduated from the Louisville Hospital Medical College in 1905, with a degree of M.D., and that same year entered the practice in Louisville in which he has been engaged ever since, meeting with the success that has attended all his endeavors and which he richly deserves for his industry, persistence and preserving application.

"Dr. Hancock is a member of the Masonic order, belonging to the Greensburg Lodge No. 54, F. and A. M. He is also a member of the Jefferson County Medical Society, the Kentucky State Medical Society and the American Medical Association. In 1900, Dr. Hancock married Lora Heizer, of Greensburg, Kentucky who died in December, 1901, her child dying at the same time."

In 1920, Jethra Hancock was living in the home of his mother-in-law, Lilly H. Pryor. The 1920 census for Boston Precinct, Jefferson County, Kentucky listed Lily H. Pryor, age 58, a widow, head of the household, a farmer, her son-in-law, Jethra Hancock, age 36, a medical physician, and her daughter, Lily M. Hancock, age 26. The family lived on Shelbyville Pike.

In 1930, Jethra Hancock was still residing in Jefferson County, Kentucky but living in the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Ada and Edward T. Arnn. Also living in the home was his 93 year-old father, Thomas H. Hancock.

After 1963, she no longer lived in Louisville but divided her time between Delray Beach, Florida in the winter and Chautauqua, New York in the summer.

Nichols, age 38, a farm laborer. The couple rented their home. (Note: The 1920 census report is very difficult to read, and the name of the second oldest daughter, identified here as Lucille, age 11, may be incorrect. Also the name of James Nichols' brother, Hubert T. Nichols, appears here for the first time. He had not shown up on earlier census reports.)

He left his job in Gibson City in order to play full-time. That was in the mid- 50's when Elvis was changing the music world. He didn't care for rock and roll, so he quit the band and took a job in Chicago working as an installer for Western Electric. He retired after 33 years.

"He met Adriana purely by accident. She was working for Revere Copper and Brass in New York, and she and a girlfriend embarked on a three week vacation trip around the U.S.A. One of their stops was a one night stay in Chicago where she just happened to meet Willis. He made plans to visit New York because she had told him what a beautiful city it was. Soon after they met, he was transferred to New York by his company for three months, and there they met each other regularly. After his three months in New York were up, they became engaged, and on July 25, 1970, they were married in Chicago. They lived for the next 30 years in Oak park, Illinois. After Willis retired, they moved to Farmer City." (From Adriana Bowles, Farmer City, Illinois.)

Notes for PEYTON MORRIS MCFARLAND:

In Memory of Little Peyton Morris McFarland, who departed this life, July 10, 1932.

The little child whom we have watched sleep hour after hour, but cannot now, for a place is vacant in that home of father and mother. Mother cannot go to his little cradle now, which sat by, and see him look up at her and see his sweet smiles or hear his sweet voice. But little Morris is now resting easy for he is asleep with Jesus.

Those little lips so sweet to kiss are closed now forever, and those sparkling little eyes that shone so bright are closed and that little heart that beat so high is stilled now from those who loved him. And the dear little hands, how mother will miss them all through the day wherever she may go, all through the night how lonely it will seem for there is no little voice to waken her out of her dreams. But mother, perhaps little Morris is now resting better than he would be if he were here. Of course, it is sad to give up our dear loved ones, no different whether they be old or young, but we have to part.
 But have hope and faith in God that we will meet little Morris in that land where we will never grow old. ----- A Friend.

"Ralph Stocker came to Colorado as a young boy when his family moved there about 1908. He was raised as a Lutheran, but after he married, he joined the First Baptist Church in Grand Junction, Colorado and retained his membership there until his death.

"Ralph and his wife, Vera, moved to Grand Junction, Colorado shortly after their marriage on January 31, 1926. This is where their two daughters, Evelyn and Helen, were born. They also lived near Denver for a short period of time when Evelyn was about two years old. Ralph worked on a farm, and Vera cooked for the field hands.

"Ralph lost an eye in an accident when he was a teenager, but he accepted his handicap as an act of God and determined it would not affect his career or his pursuit of happiness. So keen was this determination that some people never knew about the loss of his eye. Ralph was called "Red" most of his life due to his red hair.

"Ralph Stocker was a gentle, friendly man with an instinctive concern for others. He was also a man of determination, honor and fairness, and if he believed that he was right, he would stand on his decision and could not be swayed. When he did make a mistake, he was quick to apologize and make immediate correction. He was loved by all who knew him." (from his daughter, Evelyn R. Hammett, Little Rock Arkansas.)

A TRIBUTE TO RALPH F. (RED) STOCKER

Grand Junction has lost the individual most responsible for those parts of our city which makes this town an attractive, welcoming oasis in the desert.

Ralph F. (Red) Stocker, who died April 22, gave a large part of his life and his dedicated green thumb efforts toward beautifying Grand Junction. He left behind living, growing monuments that will be here so long as this city exists.

More than that, his gentle personality, his friendliness and his instinctive concern for people made him a wide circle of friends who mourn his passing.

Nobody knew better than "Red" how to make this desert bloom -- and keep it blooming. No one in local government was ever more concerned that his projects -- from a small flower garden to the downtown Shopping Park and all of the parks in the city -- result in attractive areas that people could enjoy.

Stocker was responsible for the complete refurbishing of the Lincoln Park baseball stadium. The Lincoln Park diamond is now the finest non-professional baseball park in the western United States.

Mr. Stocker began work for the city April 17, 1926. He was employed by the water department for one year, the street department for two years and finally transferred to the parks department to serve as caretaker.

When Stocker became Lincoln Park caretaker in 1929, the 'park' part was a small grassed area in front of Moyer Pool with some picnic tables and a flagpole. The pool and the pole are about the only things that have stayed put.

Through his efforts various city properties were transformed into recreation areas which have offered relaxation and enjoyment to out-of-towners as well as area residents. After retirement in 1970, Mr. Stocker viewed Lincoln Park as his greatest achievement. His work towards the beautification of the Downtown Shopping area and various other city-owned properties are also considered outstanding marks on his long record with the department.

After years of dedication to many beautification projects in Grand Junction, Mr. Stocker was honored by the Grand Junction Garden Club in 1970, the first man to be named an honorary life member of the organization.

Mr. Stocker was active in various clubs and organizations including Mesa Lodge No. 55, AF&AM of which he was a past master; all Grand Junction Scottish Rite bodies; El Jebel Shrine; and Grand Junction Chapter No. 103 Order of Eastern Star. He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Whatever Grand Junction's grand plans for the future, they will be solidly based on the green, living foundation that "Red" Stocker gave us.

In Memory of PEARL EDITH HUBELE (by Clarice Hubele Pruett)

Pearl Edith Hubele was born March 8, 1901, to Hayden and Minta (Ash) Nichols and passed from this life March 21, 2000.

After graduating from high school she attended Kansas State Teacher's College at Emporia and Teacher's Institute at Hays prior to teaching at Maple Grove School. She was the last surviving member of the first graduating class of Roxbury High School.

On December 22, 1922, she married Emil Hubele and lived her entire life on the farm. She and Emil had 5 children: Rozina Base, Lindsborg, Kansas; Dorothy Macklin, Canon City, Colorado; Clarice Pruett, Buhl, Idaho; Robert Hubele (deceased), Galva, Kansas; and Fred Hubele, Niles, Michigan.

Pearl and Emil supported financially several worthy organizations, one that was especially close to their hearts, the mission in India where their close friend, Edward Jelley, was serving. They attended Temple Church, Pearl teaching Jr. Hi boys Sunday School Class. She also was a member of the Frauen Verien, the ladies missionary group in the church.

She did a lot of sewing, making clothes and quilts, crocheted lace edgings on pillowcases, and made afghans. She loved to read often remarking that she looked forward to winter's stormy weather; she could sit down and read a book and not feel guilty.

After Emil's death in 1986, Pearl lived alone until her health failed and she could no longer take care of herself. She has left a large family including 4 children, 17 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren, 20 great-great-grandchildren, a sister, sisters-in-law, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who remember Pearl's life and mourn her passing.

Larimore, age 53, head of the household and a farmer, his wife, Cora, age 52, a son, Ernest C., age 21, and a niece, Eula Hancock, age 15.

About 1921, Eula Hancock married Clyde Twyman, and the couple would have eight children together, four girls and four boys, all born in Hart County, Kentucky. Shortly after her husband was killed on July 22, 1937, Eula found it necessary to send her daughters, ranging in age from 2 to 10, to live at the Kentucky Baptist Children's Home in Glendale, Kentucky. The sisters lived at the orphanage for seven years, until 1946, when Eula was financially able to bring them back home again. According to family history, Eula's son, Raymond Edgar Twyman, was killed in 1945 while serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Before he left for the service, he had told his mother that if anything should ever happen to him, she was to use the insurance money to bring his sisters back home to live.
