

CHAPTER TEN

Mary "Polly" Nichols and Descendants

Generation No. 2

1. MARY "POLLY"³ NICHOLS (JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born February 22, 1811 in Mercer County, Kentucky, and died August 27, 1883 in Barren County, Kentucky. She married JOHN JAMES "JACK" PURSLEY March 24, 1829 in Barren County, Kentucky, son of WILLIAM PURSLEY and MARY BUCKLEY. He was born August 02, 1805 in Amherst County, Virginia, and died April 22, 1883 in Barren County, Kentucky.

Notes for MARY "POLLY" NICHOLS:

Mary "Polly" Nichols was born February 22, 1811 in Mercer County, Kentucky. We know she was born in Mercer because her father was named on the Mercer County personal property tax rolls for that year. She would have been only one year old when her family moved 100 miles west to settle in Barren County. Polly was the ninth child born to John and Nancy Nichols, but just their second daughter. When she was 18 years old, she married John James Pursley on March 24, 1829, in Barren County, and together they would have seven children. She and her husband both died the same year, in 1883, and are buried in the Matthews Family Cemetery in Barren County. Polly Pursley was 72 years old when she died, and her husband was 77.

Notes for JOHN JAMES "JACK" PURSLEY:

John James "Jack" Pursley was born in Amherst County, Virginia on August 2, 1805, the first child of William Pursley and Mary Elizabeth Buckley. His parents were probably acquainted with the Burch brothers, Leonard and John, who also lived in Amherst County at the same time, and they may have even known John Nichols as well, since he and Nancy resided there from 1795 until 1800. At any rate, it seems likely that by the time the Pursley's settled on Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County, Kentucky, there already existed a connection between the Pursley's, the Burch's and the Nichols.

In a deed made on January 1, 1856, William Anderson sold a certain tract of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek which contained 9 acres for the sum of $9 cash-n-hand. (Deed Book X, page 339, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

In a deed made on September 23, 1867, John J. Pursley purchased from M. H. Dickinson, Commissioner for the Barren County Court, a 69 acre tract located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek for the sum of $303. Because of an equity lawsuit, the land was ordered to be sold at public auction on April 15, 1867, and Pursley was the highest bidder. The land was the same as conveyed to Ann S. Matthews, now deceased, by John Peden in a deed dated February 21, 1860. (Deed Book 5, page 629, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

In a deed recorded in the Barren County Clerk's Office on December 17, 1870, two tracts of land located on Fallen Timber Creek, one tract containing 85 acres and the other tract containing 50 acres, were sold at public auction to S. H. Boles for the sum of $677. The land was directed by the Barren County Court to be sold as a result of an equity suit following the death of William Pursley, and was the same land upon which he lived and died. After the sale, an order was entered into directing the commissioner to execute a deed of conveyance to S. H. Boles from the following: John J. Pursley, Joseph T. Pursley, Amanda Matthews and Anderson Matthews, Virginia Peden and B. S. Peden, William J. Pursley, Mary Burch, Landon Burch, Sarah Nichols and Joseph W. Nichols, J. M. Bailey, A. Bailey, Virginia Roberts and ___ Roberts, her husband, Judia Pursley, Rousseau Pursley and Nancy S. Pursley, by M. H. Dickinson, Commissioner of the Barren County Court. (Deed Book 7, page 397.)

In January of 1879, Joshua Pursley, the oldest son of Jack and Polly Pursley, was killed in an encounter with a wild bore hog. He was only 46 years old when he died, leaving behind his wife, also named Polly, and their three children. In a deed made in May 1879, Jack Pursley and his wife, Mary, conveyed to Joan Pursley, J. J. Pursley and Judia Pursley, all children of Joshua Pursley, deceased, a 42 acre tract of land situated on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County, Kentucky. According to the deed, J. J. Pursley sold to Joshua Pursley, his son, during his lifetime, the same land for $150 for which a receipt was acknowledged, but a deed was never issued, and whereas it is only fair and just that the said children of Joshua Pursley should have and be entitled to have the land, and that Mary T. Pursley, widow of said Joshua Pursley, is also entitled to her lifetime interest in said land. (Deed Book 14, page 315,)

Jack Pursley died on April 22, 1883, at the age of 77 years old, followed four months later by his wife, Polly, on August 27th. In a deed made on February 27, 1884, the heirs of J. J. Pursley, deceased, conveyed to William E. Peden, their rights and title to a certain tract of land located on the Tompkinsville Road, Barren County, Kentucky, containing 52 1/2 acres. (Deed Book 19, page 622.)

Daniel Stout was missing from the household at the time of the 1880 census, and his wife, Mary E., was listed as the head of the family. For Glasgow Junction, Barren County, Kentucky the report listed Mary E. Stout, age 49, keeping house and farming, Ephraim B., age 26, working on the farm, a son, Sam L. B., age 23, working at oil wells, a son, Joshua L., age 10, a son, Daniel J., age 16, working on the farm, and a daughter, Sally B., age 15.

The 1900 census for District No.3, Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky listed D. J. Stout, age 68, a farmer and head of the family, and his wife, Mary, age 69. The couple had been married for approximately 48 years, and only six of their eight children were still living.

The 1910 census for Glasgow, Barren County, Kentucky listed Daniel Stout, age 77, and his wife, Bettie, age 49. The couple had been married for about three years, the second marriage for both. They lived next door to his son, D. James Stout, who owned a hotel in Glasgow.

Obituary of DANIEL J. STOUT (from The Glasgow Times, Glasgow, Kentucky.)

Mr. Daniel J. Stout died at his home in the Oleoak country last Wednesday of causes incident to old age, he being eighty years old at his death. Before advancing years disabled him, Mr. Stout was known as the best shot, and greatest squirrel hunter in Barren County, always shooting his squirrel through the head with a rifle. He was a quiet, good man and citizen, and a member of the Baptist church.

The remains were interred at Poplar Springs Thursday last.
