

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Elizabeth Nichols and Descendants

Generation No. 2

1. ELIZABETH³ NICHOLS (JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born abt. 1813 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died August 30, 1842 in Barren County, Kentucky. She married ROBERT H. "BOB" WARD April 04, 1834 in Barren County, Kentucky, son of SETH WARD and REBECCA GRIFFIN. He was born July 1813 in the state of Virginia, and died bet. 1860 - 1870 prob. near Knoxville, Iowa.

Notes for ELIZABETH NICHOLS:

The exact date of birth for Elizabeth Nichols, the tenth child of John and Nancy Nichols, has never been documented. The year of 1813 is a good estimate based upon several factors. Family oral history says that she was born in Barren County, Kentucky which would place the time of her birth no earlier than 1812. She was married in Barren County on April 4, 1834, and the fact that a consent note from her parent was not required for the marriage bond, suggests that she was at least 21 years old at the time. That would place her birth sometime after April 4, 1813. In addition, the birth dates for her sister, Polly, who preceded her on February 22, 1811, and her brother, George, who came after her on December 9, 1814, are both firm dates supported by bible records and headstone information. These factors taken together tend to place Elizabeth Nichols' birth year as 1813, probably sometime after April 4th.

Elizabeth Nichols married Bob Ward on April 4, 1834 in Barren County, Kentucky, and her brother-in-law, Robert B. Burch, was named as surety on the marriage bond. Robert Burch was married to Elizabeth's sister, Anne Nichols, and on two previous occasions he had served in the roll of surety for Nichols' marriages; that of her brother, Richard Nichols, in 1822, and another brother, Phillip Nichols, in 1826. Elizabeth's husband, Bob Ward, had also acted as surety when her brother, Abner Nichols, had married in 1829.

Within seven years of their marriage, Elizabeth and Bob Ward had four children, the youngest being Decrillion Ward, born on November 18, 1840. According to family history, Elizabeth Ward died at the age of 29 years old on August 30, 1842 and was buried in the Nichols family cemetery (now called Bowles Cemetery) located not far from John Nichol's home place. The exact date for her death was found in family papers that belonged to her granddaughter, Katie Maude (Bailey) Buckley, who died in Sidney, Montana in June 1967. The cause of Elizabeth's death is not known, but she probably died of an illness or possibly even complications from childbirth. The 18 month interval between her death and the birth of her last child, Decrillion, would certainly make childbirth complications a possibility. In any event, her death left behind her husband, Bob Ward, and four infant children between the ages of 2 and 6 years old.

After Elizabeth's death, Bob Ward agreed to let his four children be raised by his Nichols in-laws. This was not an uncommon occurrence in those days when a young mother died leaving behind infant children. Initially, the two little boys, Irvin and Decrillion, went to live with their grandparents, John and Nancy Nichols, and the two girls, Mary Jane and Polly, went to live in the home of their aunt and uncle, Peggy and Leroy Nichols, who had no children of their own. (According to family oral history, Margaret Ann Nichols had a tumor on her uterus which prevented her from ever having children). A few years later, probably around the time that John Nichols died in 1851, the boys also went to live with Peggy and Leroy Nichols.

In 1847, the children's father, Bob Ward, married for a second time to Charlotte O'Neill Boren, a young widow who already had two children, ages 3 and 6, from a previous marriage. Charlotte's husband, John Boren, had died from snakebite in Tennessee. When Bob Ward decided to marry again, Leroy Nichols agreed to act as surety on the marriage bond. After their marriage Bob and Charlotte Ward continued to live in Barren County for another six years until 1853, at which time they moved to Marion County, Iowa. Bob's four children from his marriage to Elizabeth remained in Barren County and were raised to adulthood by Peggy and Leroy Nichols. Bob and Charlotte Ward eventually had six children of their own to go along with her two, and all were raised in Marion County, Iowa.

The 1850 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky listed John Nichols, age 80, a Farmer, as Head of the Household, with his wife, Nancy, age 74, and also living in the home, William J. Ward, age 14, and "Decrellan" Ward, age 9. In the same 1850 Census, living in a neighboring household was John Nichols' son, Leroy Nichols, age 33, a Farmer, his wife, Margaret A., age 32, Martha J. Ward, age 12, and Polly A. Ward, age 11.

Elsewhere in the 1850 census, Robert Ward, age 35, is listed as a Farmer and Head of Household, with his wife, Charlotte, age 27, a stepson, John, age 7, a stepdaughter, America, age 6, a daughter, Marietta, age 1, and a baby son, Powell, age 3 months. Three years later, in 1853, Robert Ward moved west with his family to the state of Iowa.

By the next U.S. census, in 1860, Elizabeth's oldest son, William Irvin Ward, had married Sarah Ann Williams, and he was listed as head of his household, living nearby to his Nichols relatives. The oldest daughter, Martha Jane Ward, had married also, to Joseph Tolle. Meanwhile, Polly and Decrillion Ward were still shown to be living in the household of their uncle, Leroy Nichols.

Elizabeth Nichols Ward was buried in the old Bowles Cemetery located just off Lick Branch Road in southeastern Barren County. Her grave is located in the older section of the cemetery near the graves of her parents, John and Nancy Nichols. The grave is no longer marked by a headstone, but with a small nameplate which bears only her name and no dates.

Notes for ROBERT H. "BOB" WARD:

The 1840 census for Southeast Barren County, Kentucky listed Robert Ward as head of the household with a family distribution as follows: 1 male less than 5 years old, 1 male between 30 to 40 years old, 2 females less than 5 years old, and 1 female between 20 and 30 years old.

Robert Ward taught independent school for a short time around 1836 or 37 at the Bethel Methodist Church in Barren County. He married Elizabeth Nichols in 1834, and they had four children before she died in 1842. After her death, he made arrangements with some of the Nichols family to take his four children and raise them as their own.

In 1847, Robert Ward married for the second time to Charlotte O'Neill Boren, a young widow with two children from a previous marriage. Her previous husband was John Boren, who had died from snakebite in Overton County, Tennessee. Robert and Charlotte remained in Barren County until about 1853 when they moved to Knoxville, Marion County, Iowa. When they departed Barren County for Iowa, they traveled with others from the Fallen Timber Creek area who were also moving to the Knoxville area. Robert B. Burch and his wife, Anne Nichols, and their children and Fanny (Burch) Nichols, the widow of Phillip Nichols, and her children all relocated to Iowa. Robert Ward and Charlotte eventually had six children of their own. Family history says that before he died, Robert Ward told his son, DeWitt, about his half brothers and sisters back in Kentucky. Many years later, around 1915, DeWitt Ward made the trip from Iowa back to Barren County to meet his kin for the first time. DeWitt Ward was later killed in 1926 from an accidental fall at a saw mill in Knoxville, Iowa.

The exact date and circumstances of Robert Ward's death are not known. He appeared in the 1860 census for the state of Iowa as 47 years old, but no further record of him was ever found. Charlotte Ward, age 46, appeared in the 1870 census as head of the household, and it is assumed that Robert must have died between 1860 and 1870 and was buried in the Knoxville, Iowa area. No record has been found which identifies the location of his gravesite.

The 1860 census for Knoxville Township, Marion County, Iowa lists Robt. Ward, age 47, a teamster and head of the household, his wife, Charlotte, age 42, a son, John, age 19, a daughter, Nancy, age 17, a son, Powell, age 13, a daughter, Margaret, age 11, a son, Ira, age 9, a son, David, age 7, a son, Christopher, age 3, and a daughter, Rebecca, age 1 year. (Note: The son, John, was from Charlotte's previous marriage to John Boren.)

The 1870 census for Knoxville Post Office, Knoxville Township, Marion County, Iowa listed Charlotte Ward, age 46, head of the household and keeping house, a son, Powell Ward, age 20, a farmer, a son, Ira Ward, age 18, a son, DeWitt Ward, age 16, a son, Criswell Ward, age 14, and a daughter, Rebecca Ward, age 11.

Generation No. 3

2. WILLIAM IRVIN⁴ WARD (ELIZABETH³ NICHOLS, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born January 30, 1836 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died November 21, 1923 prob. in Metcalfe County, Kentucky. He married SARAH ANN "SALLIE" WILLIAMS January 21, 1860 in Barren County, Kentucky, daughter of ALLEN WILLIAMS and REBECCA ?. She was born May 26, 1841, and died October 02, 1925 prob. in Metcalfe County, Kentucky.

Notes for WILLIAM IRVIN WARD:

William Irvin Ward was the oldest son of Elizabeth Nichols and Robert B. Ward, and was only 6 years old when his mother died in August 1842. When his father married again to a widow woman who already had children of her own, he gave the children up to Elizabeth's family to be raised by them. William Irvin and his younger brother, Decrillion, were taken in by Elizabeth's elderly parents, John and Nancy Nichols, while his two sisters, Martha and Polly, were taken by Elizabeth's brother, Leroy Nichols and his wife. The exact date that the children were given up by their father is not known, but the 1850 U.S. Census for Barren County, Kentucky listed both William Irvin Ward and Decrillion Ward, ages 14 and 9, respectively, as living in the household of John Nichols. When John Nichols died in 1851, the two boys joined their sisters, who were already living with their uncle, Leroy Nichols and his wife, Peggy.

Irvin Ward married Sallie Williams on January 21, 1860 in Barren County. He was 24 years old and she was 20.

In the 1860 Barren County Census, William J. Ward, a carpenter, age 24, is listed as a head of family, with a wife, Sarah, age 19. The couple lived nearby to his uncle, Leroy Nichols. William's brother, Decrillion, and sister, Polly, are shown living in the household of Leroy Nichols.

By 1870, William J. Ward and his family had moved their home to neighboring Metcalfe County, near the community of Randolph. The 1870 U.S. Census for Metcalfe County, Kentucky listed William J. Ward, age 34, a Farmer and Head of Family, his wife, Sarah, age 29, a son, Robert A., age 7, and a daughter, Sini L., age 3.

Note: Various census reports, as well as his marriage notice, all list William Ward's middle initial as "J " which was incorrect, according to family descendants. The "J" should have been an "I" which stood for Irvin. He was called William when he was young, but preferred to be called Irvin after he was grown.

The 1880 census for Edmonton, Metcalfe County, Kentucky listed William J. Ward, age 44, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Sarah A. Ward, age 39, a son, Robert A. Ward, age 17, a daughter, Lena L., age 13, and a son, Sidi Hammet Ward, age 6 years. (Note: The daughter "Lena L." was listed incorrectly and should have been Sina L.)

The 1900 census for Randolph District, Metcalfe County, Kentucky listed William Ward, age 64, a farmer and head of the household, and his wife, "Serry" Ann, age 59. The couple had been married for 40 years. Living on either side of them were their sons, Robert A. Ward and Sidi Ward.

The 1910 census showed William E. Ward, age 74, and Sarah A., age 68, still living and farming their place in Metcalfe County. The census record also indicated that three of their four children were still living, so it is assumed that the couple had a fourth child early on that died while an infant.

3. MARTHA JANE⁴ WARD (ELIZABETH³ NICHOLS, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born August 24, 1837 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died February 12, 1878 in Roxbury, McPherson County, Kansas. She married JOSEPH TURNER TOLLE February 11, 1858 in Barren County, Kentucky, son of SAMUEL TOLLE and MARY SNODDY. He was born February 05, 1834 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died January 13, 1903 in Rialto, California.

Notes for MARTHA JANE WARD:

The following narrative was written by Elsie (Burch) Sloop, a granddaughter of Martha Jane Tolle, and was based upon conversations with her aunt, Lovie Jane Tolle:

"Rev. J.H. Lockwood (the preacher at Roxbury, Kansas 1873-1874) preached Grandma Tolle's funeral. He came from St. Louis, Missouri to Salina. They weren't working under church rules, so he preached where ever he could get a congregation. Grandpa Tolle was eager to preach but Grandma was rather against it as he wasn't schooled much, and the farm was a great responsibility and Aunt Love thinks Grandma felt it was perhaps too much for him. Grandpa had an "Exhorter's" license, and as soon as a class organized, he was class leader --- in other words, he organized it.

"Grandpa built a log house (one room) on the banks of Gypsum Creek 4 miles north and just over 1/2 mile west of Roxbury, took the claim in 1865 or 66, and built a little lean-to on the north side of the log cabin. It had a place to store potatoes under it. The older pair of twins, Harrie and Hattie, were born in the log house, then Grandpa built a two-room frame house where the second set of twins, Walter Turner and Chester Campbell, were born. He hauled green cottonwoods and had them sawed for a floor to the loft, and oh how they warped.

"They boarded the school teacher on a straw bed, a Mr. Marter who had been to school at Emporia. They were so impressed by his education and refinement; they looked up to him as some sort of god.

"Dr. Bartells had just moved in, he had just graduated from Medical School, so Grandma had a doctor for the first time. John Bartells, a brother, was a preacher. He took a claim and preached where he could; also they helped build schools and churches. But it was Rev. Lockwood who did the most for education and religious training. He said at Grandma's funeral that some friends had insisted that he shouldn't try to go out to conduct the services as it was February and the roads were almost impassable. He told them, "Oh yes I can, as the night or day was never too dark or too cold for Mrs. Tolle to get up when I arrived at their house and cook me a meal of whatever she had in the house, so I can get there, and I will." He also made the statement when first asked if he could go and conduct the service, that "I sure will, Mrs. Tolle was the best woman I ever knew." The old Eureka school house had been built by that time, so her funeral was held in that, as they expected such a large crowd. It was full. (All the vehicles they had in that day were lumber wagons and buckboards, which were two-wheelers with a seat attached. It was cold, and the horses got so cold during the funeral hour that one family was thrown out when the horses lunged and plunged to get started.)"

Notes for JOSEPH TURNER TOLLE:

Joseph and Martha Jane Tolle moved from Barren County, Kentucky to Bartholomew County, Indiana in late 1861 or early 1862, where they lived near the town of Taylorsville. Shortly after the end of the Civil War, around 1867, the family departed Indiana and headed west by wagon to the state of Kansas, where they settled in the Gypsum-Roxbury area, located southeast of the town of Salina. Joseph Tolle homesteaded on 160 acres of land.

The Homestead Act of 1862 started a post Civil War wave of homesteaders moving west, who were allowed to settle up to 160 acres of surveyed but unclaimed public land and receive title to that land after making improvements and residing there for five years. Joseph and Mary Jane Tolle were among the first people from Barren County, Kentucky to settle in McPherson County, Kansas, but once they had settled in and corresponded with family back home, they were soon followed by several more relatives. By the end of 1870, the following Barren County families had also acquired homesteads in the Gypsum-Roxbury area: Thomas J. Nichols (son of Thomas Nichols) and his wife, Lucinda Jane Tolle; Lucinda Nichols (daughter of Abner K. Nichols) and her husband, John James Tolle; Mary Virginia Nichols (daughter of Thomas Nichols) and her husband, Joel Lee "Jack" Tolle; and Robert Franklin Burch (son of Anne Nichols Burch) and his wife, Mary E. Tolle. All of these families migrated to Kansas together as one family group in 1870.

The 1870 census for Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, Kansas listed Joseph T. Tolle, age 31, a farmer and head of the household, his wife, Martha J., age 32, a daughter, Mary E., age 11, a son, Robert S., age 8, and a daughter, Lovie, J., age 6. The family's real estate was valued at $2500. and personal property also at $2500.

The 1880 census for Gypsum Creek Township, McPherson County, Kansas listed Joseph T. Tolle, age 46, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Phebe, age 21, a daughter, Mary E., age 21, a son, Robert S., age 18, a daughter, Lovie J., age 17, a daughter, Hattie G., age 7, a son, Harrie F., age 7, a son, Walter T., age 4, a daughter, Christie C., age 4, and a daughter, Loie A., age 4 months.

Obituary of JOSEPH T. TOLLE

Rev. Joseph T. Tolle was born in Barren county, Ky., Feb. 5, 1834 and died in Rialto, Cal., January 13, 1903. He was twice married to Miss Martha J. Ward Feb. 11, 1853, and after her death to Miss Phebe Hodges, Feb. 26, 1879.

Tolle lived in Ky. until 18__ when he moved to Taylorsville, Ind. After four years residence there he moved to McPherson County, Kansas. From there he came to Rialto, Cal., to reside in 1899. He was a thrifty and successful farmer. He was also a useful preacher. Braving the hardships of frontier life, his influence was always on the side of right. Having served the church in various capacities as a layman, he began preaching in 1877. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Merrill in 1884. He rendered valuable service as a home missionary in the organization of our church in Clark and Meade counties, Kansas. Later he labored as supply and evangelist. He attended and greatly enjoyed the Long Beach camp meeting of last year. A little later he preached for the writer in his home church at Rialto. This was his last public service.

Gradually failing in health he has now gone home to receive that crown of righteousness which the Lord shall give to all them that love his appearing. Brother Tolle was happily converted in 1850, so that for more than half a century his delight was in God's service and in his sanctuary. He dearly loved the Methodist church, and one of the joys of his last years was in the fact that one of his sons, the Rev. Harry Tolle, now located in Arizona, has dedicated himself to the ministry.

Notes for CHARLES PERKINS BAILEY:

Charles Perkins Bailey was married three times, and all of his wives were 1st cousins, each one descended from a different child of the family patriarch, John Nichols. His first wife was Lucy Nichols, a granddaughter of Elias Lacy Nichols. Wife No. 2 was Polly Ward, a granddaughter of Elizabeth (Nichols) Ward. His last wife, Cordelia Bowles, was a granddaughter of Thomas Nichols.

In a deed made and entered into on April 16, 1873, John G. Bailey sold to his son, Charles P. Bailey, a tract of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County containing 38 1/2 acres for the sum of $385, of which $100 was paid cash-in-hand, with $200 payable in 12 months with interest of 10%, and $85 to be paid in two years. (Deed Book 9, page 611, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

On February 15, 1876, John G. Bailey and his wife, Elizabeth, and son, Charles P. Bailey, all conveyed to B. F. Trahie, two tracts of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek in Barren County, for the sum of $600 cash-in-hand. One tract contained 140 acres, and the second tract contained 14 acres. Of said two tracts of land, John G. Bailey had previously conveyed by deed to his son, C. P. Bailey, a boundary containing 38 and 1/2 acres, and hence C. P. Bailey joined in this deed and sale to Trahie. (Deed Book 11, page 92.)

On January 17, 1882, a tract of land located in Barren County containing 35 and 3/4 acres was sold at public auction by order of the Barren County Court. The purchaser was G. W. (Deed Book 20, page 198)

In a deed made and dated on August 16, 1887, David B. Minyard and his wife, Josephine, sold to Charles P. Bailey a certain parcel of land lying in Barren County containing 56 and 1/4 acres for the sum of $300, of which $93.50 was paid in cash, and for the remaining $206.50 obligation, Charles P. Bailey agreed to assume the payment on a $200 note in the hands of L. W. Jones executed on January 31, 1887. (Deed Book 23, page 289, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

After almost nine years of marriage, Charles Bailey's second wife, Polly, died on August 9, 1885. Approximately one year later, on September 12, 1886, Charles married for the third time to Delia Bowles, and by the 1900 census, they had two children of their own. The 1900 census for District 3, Temple Hill, Barren County, Kentucky listed Charles P. Charles P. Bailey died on November 27, 1938, outliving his third wife, Cordelia, by eight years. He married HANNAH ALMA PICKERING May 10, 1866 in Barren County, Kentucky at the home of Melvina Grinstead., daughter of AUGUSTUS PICKERING and LYDIA ?. The 1880 census for Edmonton Precinct, Metcalfe County, Kentucky listed D. C. Ward, age 39, a farmer and head of the family, his wife, Elma, age 38, a daughter, Lidia A., age 12, a son, Augustus L., age 9, a son, Suel, age 7, a daughter, Coria, age 5, a son, Dixey, age 2, and a son, Duff, age 8 months. They lived in Metcalfe County until 1888, at which time he bought a farm from Peter Gossett in Barren County. The farm was located approximately seven miles east of Glasgow on Highway 90, turn left on Vernon School and go another three miles. Decrillion lived on this farm until he died on August 12, 1917. The farm remained in the hands of a son, Sewell Ward, until 1943. Decrillion and Alma also lived in Bowling Green, Kentucky for a few years where he ran a hotel before moving back to their farm in Barren County after 1899.

The 1900 census for the town of Glasgow, Barren County, Kentucky listed Decrillon Ward, age 59, head of the household, a hotel proprietor, his wife, Alma, age 54, and a daughter, Cora, age 25. The hotel, located on Main Street in Glasgow, housed six boarders and two servants. The Wards had been married for 34 years, and six of their nine children were still living.

DeWitt Ward, the half-brother of Irvin and Decrillion Ward, came from Iowa to visit them in 1912. That was the first time that the men had ever met.

Decrillion Ward was a Mason and belonged to the Renick Lodge No. 543 in Metcalfe County, Kentucky.

In a deed recorded on October 2, 1867, Joel E. Tolle and his wife, Mary, sold to D. C. Ward, both parties of Barren County, two tracts of land for the sum of $350 cash-in-hand. One tract contained 26 acres, and the other tract contained 31 acres. (Deed Book 5, page 354.) A little over five years later, on January 24, 1873, D. C. Ward and his wife, Alma F. Ward, sold the same two tracts of land to John W. Pedigo for the sum of $576, of which $216 was paid cash-in-hand, and the remaining $360 was secured to be paid in two notes over the next two years. (Deed Book 10, page 8, Barren County Clerk's Office.)

In a deed made on November 14, 1902, D. C. Ward and his wife, Alma Ward, sold to his son, W. S. Ward, a tract of land located on the waters of Fallen Timber Creek containing 29 1/4 acres for the sum of $234 to be paid by two notes, one for $150 and the other for $84, each note drawing interest at 6% and secured by retaining a lien on the land. (Deed Book 50, page 572.)

Notes for HANNAH ALMA PICKERING:

Alma Pickering first came to Barren County, Kentucky when she was seventeen years old, leaving home because she couldn't get along with her step-father. She lived with Melvina Grinstead, widow of Robert Grinstead, who was a cousin. Their home was located in Big Spring Bottom. She became qualified to teach school, and was one of the first woman teachers in Barren County. In the early years only men taught school in Barren County. Her first teaching assignment was at Bluff Springs, known in those days as Possum Trot. When her daughter, Lydia, became a school teacher, she also taught at Possum Trot, as well as her granddaughter, Ruby, who taught there also. Alma gave the little bell that both she and Lydia used to ring in school to her granddaughter, Ruby, and she used it until the country school became consolidated. Alma also taught school at the old Mount Vernon Church, located on Fallen Timber Creek. The church served as both a church meeting place and a school. She lived to be 95 years old and was one of the most beloved women of the county.

DEATH OF MRS. ALMA WARD, AGE 95, NEAR LICK BRANCH (from the Glasgow Times, Thursday, February 18, 1937)

Mrs. Alma Ward, one of Barren County's oldest women, died at her home near Lick Branch on Glasgow R. 5, Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. She was 95 years of age and death was caused by a heart attack following a short illness.

Mrs. Ward had a distinct memory of the bloody battles of the Civil War, having been born January 12, 1842, nineteen years prior to the war. She was formerly Miss Alma Pickering and taught school for several years.

Mrs. Ward was a woman of keen intellect with a wide source of knowledge on historic as well as current events. She was a saintly woman and was loved and admired by a host of friends and acquaintances throughout the county. Her ninety- fifth birthday was celebrated last month with surprise gifts and remembrances from all parts of the county.

Surviving are three sons, Messrs. W.S. Ward, Glasgow; D.E. and A.L. Ward, San Francisco, Cal.; two daughters, Mrs. Lydia Dierking and Mrs. Cora Higgins, both of Louisville. Twelve grandchildren and seven great grandchildren survive.

Funeral services were conducted at the Bowles cemetery, near Oleoak Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by Rev. F.H. Woodward of Bowling Green. Interment followed in the Bowles cemetery.

9. MARY ELIZABETH⁵ TOLLE (MARTHA JANE⁴ WARD, ELIZABETH³ NICHOLS, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born November 29, 1858 in Glasgow, Barren County, Kentucky, and died February 08, 1949. She married CHARLES ELSWORTH NEEL August 23, 1882 in McPherson County, Kansas. He was born June 07, 1856 in the state of Illinois, and died May 05, 1932 in McPherson County, Kansas.

Notes for MARY ELIZABETH TOLLE:

The following narrative was written sometime in 1938 and records some of the early childhood memories of Elizabeth Tolle. In response to questions from her family about her early life, Aunt Lizzie talked about what it was like when her family left Kentucky and moved to Indiana around 1862. She talked about how they returned to Barren County for a short visit with family sometime in 1866, and then shortly thereafter, about how the family left Indiana for good heading west by wagon to Kansas, where her father would homestead 160 acres of land.

"Our father and mother were married February 11, 1858. They went to housekeeping in or near the old neighborhood in a log house, of course, but I am sure when Bob was little they moved to another place for I remember it, a two room log house. I don't know whether anybody owned or rented land. I imagine they cleared off the timber and planted their patches. I am sure that that place belonged to someone else at one time because they called it by name. That was where Pa took the onion sets that Ma gave him to plant away off from the house and planted them in a rail fence corner. Pa didn't like onions, and he hoped she would never find them. But she did, and one day she made onion gravy, and he liked it so well he never again tried to hide the onion patch. The neighbors said Ma was a nice housekeeper. Her tin coffee pot, dish and wash pan was the brightest of anyone's. I think the folks in those days made their four-post bedsteads and split bottom chairs, and of course, made their tables. Their bake oven was a large, rather deep skillet with an iron lid. They raked coals out of the fireplace onto a stone hearth, placed their oven on it, put the lid on and covered it with coals, and it baked well and sometimes burned. I know because I had to eat it once. Pa was going to bring their children up in the way they should go, "Eat what is set before you and ask no questions." I believe they called that place the Adams place. It was there the rates were so bad, and Ma had to go so far to the spring to get water, and she was so afraid the rats would get at Bob in his little cradle she would run all the way. Sure enough, one time they had gnawed his fingers so bad he carried the scars all his life.

"I think one reason they left Barren County and went to Indiana was that Indiana was a Union state, and Kentucky was a Southern one. When they went back to Kentucky for a visit, they were already intending to go to Kansas. I think we went back in August, perhaps, and we started west in September, for we had warm weather all the way. I think they went to Kansas because they could take up government land. Uncle B. was already at Junction City and had been out and filed on land (160 acres) for himself, Pa and Uncle John, I think, for Uncle John went out with us, and his claim was only a little way from us, so I suppose Uncle B. was really the cause of them going west. Pa did well in Indiana. He worked hard and saved quite a little sum to take to Kansas with him. I think about $1000.

"I don't remember so much about our visit back to Kentucky, only that we stayed at Uncle Lee Nichols and Aunt Peggy Ann's. They raised Ma, her sister, Aunt Pop, and their two brothers, Uncle Irvin and Uncle Decrillion. Aunt Pop wasn't married when we were back there on that visit. We went from place to place on horseback. I suppose that we were there a week or two. Our grandfather Tolle was still living but not well and quite feeble, and he didn't live for many years after that. I thought he was the handsomest old man I ever saw. He was smooth shaven, all the men of that day wore chin whiskers, but Grandfather didn't, and I loved him. He had his second wife then. They had two daughters, Molly and Ellen, I believe were their names. On the visit to Kentucky, Pa had a family group taken in Glasgow, and I have it. Phoebe sent it and a few other old pictures to me just before we left the oil fields. In it, Bob stood by Pa. It is splendid of all but Ma. Love had cried and was so shy that Ma looks awfully worried, which was not a natural look at all. (See photograph no. 5 on page 1317.)

"We lived in a good house the last two or three years before we left Indiana and had bought furniture. Pa did well there, and we had a carriage and went to church in Taylorville. When we left Indiana for Kansas, we left by wagon drawn by a very good team. Flora and Fancy. There were two or three other families that started with us, but because they became discouraged in a few days, they went back. I don't remember any children being in our caravan. I don't think they brought anything in the way of furniture. When we had our sale before leaving there, Pa wanted to sell everything but beds, pillows and quilts, but there was a brass kettle Ma wanted to keep and she hid it behind the door. I saw her do it, and how she and the other women that were there laughed. That pretty, bright, two-gallon kettle came to Kansas, and it should be in the family yet, but I don't know what became of it. Wore out, I suppose. They brought no livestock or chickens or dogs. The first winter we lived in a log cabin close to Junction City.

"As I remember the other wagons that started to Kansas came to our house, and it seems to me that all was joyous excitement, and of course, I was all thrills as all children would be. We had been on the road two or three days when we went through Terra Haute. There was some kind of celebration on there and lots of ladies and gentlemen on horses. The ladies had beautiful riding habits. It made a lasting impression on my mind. It was all so beautiful. We camped that night just a little way from the city. I remember that the sides of the road were so clean and the big trees so beautiful.

"I don't know for sure how long we were on the road, but I believe it was 6 weeks. We stopped one night at a farmhouse in Illinois on the black prairie. Ma had a bad cold, and it had rained on our bedding, and it had gotten damp. The folks had Ma make her bed on the floor instead of in the tent as usual. So she and us children slept in the house that night. That was the only night I remember sleeping in a house while on the road, except for a few days we stopped at Uncle Allen's somewhere in Missouri. I wish I could remember the name of the place. They lived on a farm, and we had a good time there. They had a taffy pull one night, and someone put a hand full of taffy in Uncle Allen's long whiskers, and he had an awful time, and lost a lot of whiskers. Uncle John fell in love with a young lady school ma'am that was boarding at Uncle Allen's. He asked for her address, but nothing came of it. I don't remember anything about what we had to eat, only bacon and coffee, and they always smelled so good. Those days there was no bread in the market as there is now. I suppose that Ma made corn pone, and it might have been that they baked biscuits in an iron oven like they baked with when they cooked on a fireplace. Of course, there were many small towns, but I don't remember any town, only Terra Haute. When we crossed the river at Fort Leavenworth, we went right on to Junction City where Uncle B. was. I must tell you about us crossing the river at Leavenworth. There were no bridges, so the road was rip rapped away out to the middle of the river, and there they drove onto a boat or raft, I don't remember which, and we went on across. I know that I was awfully scared, and the riprap was terrible for the horses to go over. They lunged and plunged and would fall down. A saying that was characteristic of Kansas at that time was "Kansas is heaven for men and dogs but hell for women and horses."

"During the trip, we children kept real well, only Love and Bob had sore eyes for a few days. If they had medicine or herbs along, I don't remember about it. I don't remember Ma or Pa ever being down-hearted or discouraged on the trip. Bob was dressed in pants and waists. I can't remember a bed in the wagon, but I think we must have had one. I know we had a tent, but we must have been so tired when night came we went to sleep somewhere without paying much attention.

"I don't remember anything about our actual leave taking from Indiana, and I believe I would have if Ma had cried or grieved. I never remember her crying but once, and that was after we had lived in Kansas two or three years. The Indians went on the warpath, and Ma was afraid and wanted to go to Salina or Junction City for a while until the Indians were made to go back to their reservation by the government troops. As far as I know, she never wanted to go back to Kentucky or Indiana. She was a true pioneer and a brave little woman. She never went back but once, and that was before they left Indiana. Soon Uncle Joel and his family came out, and Uncle B. and Uncle John went back to Kentucky and married, and cousin William and his family came, and after Grandfather Tolle died, Uncle Sam came. He was quite young, perhaps 20 or 22. The country settled up fast. Oh, I forgot to say, we and all the settlers along Gypsum Creek did go to Salina and camped there several days -- a week, perhaps. All this occurred the first year or so we were there, and it was not long Dick Temple and his bride came. He was killed by Indians, and his wife's father came out and took her back to Indiana. Seven years later, she came back and married Uncle John. His wife, Aunt Cindy, had died, leaving two little girls, Emma and Jean. That is how it came about that we had Aunt Josie in our family. Aunt Josie died three years ago this spring, if I'm not mistaken. (1935)

"Pa homesteaded 160 acres and bought the rest of his land. After a short while, Cousin Virgil Snoddy built our new house, and as he was not a real carpenter, he had some trouble in building it. It was kind of a botch, not a closet nor pantry nor cupboard in it, but he was not blamed for that. It wasn't planned that way. That house was bare and empty. I never did have a thrill over it. We should have had a few pieces of furniture to make it homey and comfortable. When Ma died in February, you and Harry (Lizzie's sister and brother, who were twins) would have been 6 years old in September and Walter and Christie 3 in the next June. Dr. Bartells was with Ma when you twins were born. I believe Ma had a hired girl when you and Harry were born for we children were going to school, but I expect Love and I did the work when Walter and Christie were born for that was in June. Perhaps Love will remember. When Ma padded comforts with paper was during the Civil War, and we lived in Indiana at that time. I don't remember her doing that in Kansas. Yes, one time Pa got lost and wandered around all day. I suppose the horses brought him home, for late in the day they came to a place where someone lived, but at first he did not recognize it as being his own home. He just told Ma that the weather got so bad that he thought he better go back home and wait for better weather. He didn't tell her for a long time that he was lost and didn't know his own home when he got back. He had not started to Salina but had started to Junction City. That was much farther than Salina. It was snowy and foggy and likely no road at all.

"Pa always had morning and evening worship. That is one of the dearest and sweetest memories of my childhood days, and I thank the Lord for that memory. Pa had his faults, but he will always be a Christian man in my life. He had a great faith, and in prayer he was wonderful. Yes, in the early days we had preaching at out house until the schoolhouse was built. Bartells, a brother to Dr. Bartells, preached for us. About that time Mr. Hall and his family came out from Kentucky. We did not know them. He preached for us sometimes. He was a Campbellite, and in those days they and the Methodists didn't agree very well. The Halls lived just across the creek from us, and the two families were quite intimate, especially us children. Pa was postmaster for several years at our house. I did not go to school in Junction City. We went to old Eureka to school, right across the road from the little house in which Frances was born, but earlier than that we went to school in the little house where John Moody and his mother lived, later after Eureka was built. At that time we lived out a mile or two from town in a one-room log house.”

29. vi. GUY ALLEN TOLLE, b. October 15, 1901.

11. LOVIE JANE⁵ TOLLE (MARTHA JANE⁴ WARD, ELIZABETH³ NICHOLS, JOHN², UNKNOWN¹) was born February 23, 1864 in near Taylorville, Bartholomew County, Indiana, and died August 17, 1956 in Lakeland, Polk County, Florida. She married JAMES ALEXANDER TOLLE April 02, 1884 in Roxbury, McPherson County, Kansas, son of WILLIAM TOLLE and FRANCES MATTHEWS. He was born December 21, 1855 in Barren County, Kentucky, and died May 31, 1914 in McPherson County, Kansas.

Notes for LOVIE JANE TOLLE:

The following narrative was written by Love Tolle around 1938 at the request of family members. She and her sister, Lizzie, were each asked to write down some of their early childhood memories about leaving Barren County, Kentucky and moving to Indiana during the Civil War, and then later moving west by wagon to Kansas, and to talk about their early life as homesteaders in Kansas.

"I know very little about our parent's lives up to the time we came to Kansas. I know Cousin Willie was Pa's best man, and I believe Aunt Pop was Ma's bridesmaid. I am sure that they had little to start out with for that was a poor country. But they seemed to have good gardens and plenty of apples and peaches, so we always had plenty to eat. Ma could knot (so could Pa) and sew. They had been married about 4 - 5 years when they moved to Indiana. That was to get away from the war zone. Pa did not want to enlist, and he was afraid he would be drafted if he stayed in Kentucky. Where they moved seemed to have been a prosperous country and was farming country, I suppose, for Pa got work at building levees to protect the river bottom fields. Pa worked too hard at that and almost worked old Fannie almost to death, but he got good money for it. That is where he got the money to go to Kentucky and back to Indiana, then on to Kansas. He had several hundred dollars when we reached Kansas. I think Uncle B. (Henry or Harry Bascomb Tolle, Grandpa Joseph Tolle's brother) had been to Kansas and filed on the old homestead for Pa.

"They visited in Kentucky for two weeks, and I imagine were with Pa's father and stepmother and two half sisters a good deal as Grandfather was getting quite feeble by then, but he lived two or three years longer. Of course, I remember nothing about our visit to Kentucky as I was only about 2 1/2 years old. But one thing I know is that we drove horses and not oxen on our trip to Kansas. Pa said he could not live a Christian life and drive oxen. The horses were named Fannie and Flora. Fannie was a very dark brown, and Old Sook was her daughter. Her first colt was born dead, I suppose, and as she was loose over on the east side of the creek, the coyotes thought they would have a treat. But she had walked around that dead baby of hers, fighting the coyotes off, till she had made a deep path in the sand. I can remember that alright.

"Our mother was of a cheerful and optimistic disposition and could look on the bright side of things, and as her father and stepmother had migrated to Iowa before that, I believe she was willing, whether anxious or not, to go to a new country where they could homestead land instead of buying high-priced land like it was in Indiana. She never got to go back to Kentucky. I think we were 5 weeks on the road going to Kansas, and I think Uncle John and Will Temple came in Pa's wagon. I don't remember this, only as I've heard them tell it, and I'm glad I can't. When I got such sore eyes that I couldn't open them, they borrowed a cow, and early in the morning when she first got up, they took the fresh cow plaster and bound it on my eyes while it was still warm, and it drew the inflammation out so I could see once more. This was the only medicine they used on me so far as I know, and I don't suppose Liz and Bob caught sore eyes from me. They brought two feather beds and several pillows and I guess enough quilts and coverlets to keep us warm. Do you remember the two old blue and white coverlets? They would be more appreciated now than they were then. All homespun.

"Pa homesteaded the old farm (160 acres), and after Uncle B. lived out his homestead, he pre-empted an 80 acre tract and lived on it for 6 months, then Pa paid it out for half of it. So he built the big house on the 40 acres he got from Uncle B. Then he bought the Dierdorff place for $1200. Then he bought the railroad land, I don't remember whether from the railroad or the government.

"Cousin Virgil Snoddy took the contract to build the big house for $200, and it took him months and months to build it, and he was not a very good carpenter, so the doors and windows had very little fit to them. We moved into it on October 26, 1875, the day before Walter and Christie were four months old. The men moved the poor little household stuff up, then along in the afternoon they loaded the big old cradle into the back part of the wagon and put you and Harry into it and me to stand guard over you. Ma sat in the spring seat with the little babies in her lap, and Bob sat in the seat with her and drove. Liz walked and carried the bucket of milk so it would not slosh out. The house seemed so big and bare and made such a ringing sound when we talked. The pasture came right up to the yard, and at that time of the year stock flies were anxious to get into the house. There were no screens to hinder, so someone had to stand back of the chairs with a brush to make eating more safe.

"As I said, we moved October 26, 1875, and Ma lived a little more than two years, or till February 12, 1878. You and Harry were 5 1/2 years old, and Walter and Christie were more than 2 1/2 years old at the time of her death. Dr. Bartells was there when both sets of twins came. Katherine Richter worked for Ma when you and Harry came, and Julia Tolle, our cousin, worked for her when Walter and Christie came. Of course, Liz helped all the time. The first time, I was too young to be of any account, and the second time I was too busy taking care of you and Harry to do much else only help wash dishes.

"As far back as I can remember, Pa read the Bible and had prayer just before going to bed. Then when you and Harry were little things, just walking alone, Rev. Lockwood held a revival at Roxbury, and Pa said once a day was not often enough to pray, so he read the Bible and had prayer before breakfast as well as at bedtime. Till I was about six years old, all the preaching and Sunday school they had were at Pa's with any preacher that would come out from Salina. Then they built the old Moody house for a school house and hired Miss Molly Ellis (later Mrs. John Fehring) to teach our first school. Liz had lived with the Methodist preacher in Salina for one winter and had gone to school before that time. After two or three years, they sold the first school house to John Moody and built old Eureka school house."

Notes for LUCY ANN NICHOLS:

"When Lucy Ann Nichols was 10 or 12 years old, her favorite pastime was standing by the fence on the lower side of her yard and looking down at the travelers by the spring. She would stand and watch and listen for hours. Travelers from Burkesville, Willow Shade, and other towns in the surrounding counties would drive their stock (hogs, cattle, sheep and turkeys) to market at Glasgow. Since they couldn't make the trip over bad, muddy roads in one day, they often camped overnight at Elbow Springs. The spring was located on private property, which was owned by her grandfather, Thomas Nichols, but it was always open for use by the public.

"The ground for campers was between one-third and one-half acre in size and was completely covered with gravel from the branch that leisurely flowed along the southwest side of the grounds. Sometimes travelers would arrive in covered wagons, and while tying up and feeding their team, they would holler back and forth to each other and use rough language. If the travelers had a covered wagon, they slept in that, but if the weather permitted; they would spread a blanket on the ground and sleep outside under the sky.

"When Lucy was a child, the building over the spring was made of logs and had a gourd for people to use as a dipper. It always hung on the wall. There was a foot-log on the lower side of the ground behind the spring-house where walkers could cross the branch to the store that was owned by Nichols and son. The foot-log was high and narrow. The Nichols children had to cross the log in order to get water from the spring. They had a long stick upon which they hung their buckets to carry water back to the house. Sometimes they spilled the water (probably playing) and had to go back for more." (Family history from Ruby Ward based upon interviews with her mother, Lucy Nichols Ward.)

"Aunt Lucy" lived to be 108 years, 9 months and a few days old. When Barren County celebrated its Centennial in 1976, Lucy Ward was the oldest citizen in the county and was chosen to be in the parade. She was honored at a breakfast and made a "Kentucky Colonel."

"MISS LUCY" OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Lucy Ward celebrated her 105th birthday Saturday, February 12, and although she is recuperating from a broken hip it was a merry occasion.

"Miss Lucy" as she is most usually called sustained a broken hip in a fall at her home last November. At the present time she is convalescing at a local nursing home and her family joined her there for the celebration.

However "Miss Lucy" is expected to return in the near future to her own home which she shares with one of her daughters. Her home located on Route 4 is on farmland where she was born in 1872.

Last year at age 104 according to one of her daughters "Miss Lucy" had occasion to visit the nursing home where she is now recuperating and remarked, "When I get old, I hope I'll have a good place to stay."

I was reminded recently that several years ago when "Miss Lucy" was only 99 or 100 years of age I asked her to what she contributed her longevity. She replied, "Minding my own business."

This year when I visited her all of her children with the exception of one had arrived for the birthday observance. "Miss Lucy" is still very alert and prompted by her son Bill, she sang two verses of "Grandfather's Clock" and never missed a word.

She is the mother of seven children, Ruby Ward, Otto Ward, Chester Ward, Bill Ward, Mrs. E.P. Elbert, all of Glasgow, Mrs. Christine Nordstrom, San Antonio, Texas and Mrs. Gladys Palmore, St. Petersburg, Florida.

"Miss Lucy" is the widow of W. Sewell Ward who died in 1964.

COUNTY'S OLDEST RESIDENT DIES

The county's oldest resident has died. Lucy Ann Ward, 108, of Route 4, Glasgow, died Friday at her home. She was a native of Barren County and the wife of the late W. Sewell Ward.

Survivors include four daughters, Ruby Ward of Route 4, Mrs. Lucy May Ebert, of Glasgow, Mrs. Christie Nordstrom, San Antonio, Tex., and Gladys Palmore, St. Petersburg, Fla.; three sons, Otto and William M., both of Route 4 and Chester of Glasgow; 10 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Ward is preceded in death by two sons.

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Monday at the Refuge Church of Christ in Eighty-Eight with burial in the Bowles Family Cemetery. Visitation is at A. F. Crow and Son Funeral Home.

- i. BRUCE ORVILLE⁶ WARD, b. September 28, 1898, Barren County, Kentucky; d. December 18, 1926, near Detroit, Michigan.

Notes for BRUCE ORVILLE WARD:

Bruce Ward and his friend, Archie Peden, were killed in a car - train accident. He had a high school education and one semester of business college. He worked for the Ford Motor Company in Detroit, Michigan. Bruce Ward was never married.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT

Clouds of sadness throw a shadow upon our pathway and we are made to submit to God's will though we cannot understand why He deals with us in such a mysterious way. Face to face we will meet our God, then all mysteries will be revealed and we will understand that in all things His way was best.

One of the darkest clouds that has cast a shadow in the lives of loved ones and friends was when Bruce Ward and Archie Peden were hurled into eternity without a moment's warning.

Two strong young men in the bloom of youth just beginning to realize that life was sweet and worthwhile had to be taken from loved ones leaving them broken-hearted but God knows best and for some reason Bruce and Archie were crushed to death by a flyer which made its way onward leaving blood stained and mangled bodies to be taken care of by those that found them first.

Our time on earth can be compared to the west bound train that so rapidly makes its way from one station to another. Time is fleeting and our last station at any moment may be reached just as Archie and Bruce in an instant reached theirs. Let us grasp every opportunity God has so graciously blessed us with and face Him with a record we will not be ashamed to face.

Last Saturday morning, December 18 at 1:30, Bruce and Archie started for home to spend the Holidays with relatives. Just out of the city limits a west bound train was making its way to the Telegraph and Ecorse Crossing, the boys just getting to the crossing in time to be hurled to their death.

It was a heart-breaking sight to see their strong bodies mangled and crushed with a car that was completely demolished. Bruce's body was found under the car, Archie was thrown about ten feet from the car. William, a brother, was thrown thirty feet from the car, badly injured but will recover.

We realize that death must come in the morning of life, to some at noon of life and to the old in the evening. At noon time while the bloom of youth so brilliantly throws its rays upon bright and youthful lives here we must weep with loved ones who must say good bye while viewing the strong bodies of those whose ray of light is gone out and their spirits have flown to God who gave them life. So it was with Bruce and Archie.

Their bodies were brought to Archie's brother's cold in death, enclosed in caskets, to stay with us until loved ones could go with their bodies to Kentucky where grief-stricken mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters met to view the remains the last time on earth.

Perhaps their horrible deaths comes to us as a warning to lead others to God and to live closer to Him. We deeply sympathize with loved ones and can only commend them to God who alone can comfort in such dark hours. One day God will reveal all mysteries; we will meet the boys again and then understand.

"Sadie's father was Jacob Isaac Newton Lott, who was 15 years old and living in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania at the time the Civil War battle was fought there. He was out chopping wood when word came that the soldiers were coming. In his excitement, he dropped the axe on his foot and carried the scar for the rest of his life. According to family stories, the first shots fired in the battle were fired across his father's farm. He turned 16 two days after the battle ended. He later enlisted with the Union Army near the end of the war, but only saw a little action. He heard Lincoln give the Gettysburg address and was proud of that fact all his life. As a young man, he was a blacksmith, but he later became a Presbyterian minister. He lived in Kansas for many years until his death at the age of 99." Notes for CHARLES WAYNE "BUB" SLOOP:

CHARLES W. SLOOP KILLED BY TRAIN

Salinan Run Over by Tanker in Kansas City (August 8, 1946)

Charles W. Sloop, 29, formerly of Salina, a helper on a Union Pacific switch crew, was fatally injured about 8:15 last Friday evening when he was run over by a tanker in the Kansas City railroad yards. Sloop died at 2:48 the next morning at St. Margaret's hospital.

Sloop was the son of James Sloop, Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Elsie Sloop, 709 East Ash Street. His wife is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hansen, 218 Baker street. Sloop, who had worked in Kansas City for about three years, was sent to Salina during the harvest rush, and he and his family stayed at the Hansen home. He had been sent back to Kansas City only recently.

Accounts from the accident differ. From all the information Mrs. Sloop can obtain, it seems that her husband was "taking a tab" on a car, and was hit by another car, a tanker. Both legs and his left arm were cut off. He regained consciousness only once before he died. Asked if he knew how the accident happened, he replied that if he knew, he would not be there.

Charles Wayne Sloop was born in Saline county, south of Salina. He moved with his family to Abilene, and was graduated from the high school there. Besides his wife and parents, he is survived by a four-year-old daughter, Sandra Kay, a brother, Frank Sloop, 709 East Ash; and two sisters, Mrs. Marjorie Newlon, Marion; and Mrs. Lola Ross, Salina.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Immanuel Lutheran church, with the Rev. J. E. Liljedahl and the Rev. Hugh B. Chittenden in charge.
